Administrative History

The Philosophy Department of Loyola University of Chicago was established in 1932. It was created with several goals in mind. It was to aid students in developing the reflective ability and logical skills necessary for clear and careful reasoning, to acquaint them with basic and perennial philosophical questions and with classical and contemporary philosophical literature, and to encourage them to develop their own critically informed responses to these questions.

These records are primarily the records of those who chaired the Philosophy Department from 1956 to 1985. Chairpersons of the Philosophy Department during the period from 1956 to 1984 were: Rev. Robert W. Mulligan, S.J., Ph.D., 1955-1959; Rev. F. Torrens Hecht, S.J., Ph.D., 1960-1965; Francis J. Catania, Ph.D., 1966-1973; Kenneth Thompson, Ph.D., 1973-1979; and Rev. Robert F. Harvanek, S.J., Ph.D., 1979-1985.

Scope and Content

The Philosophy Department Records consist of 9 linear feet and spans the years 1956-1985. Included in these materials are correspondence, department notices, special events, course descriptions and schedules, financial records, information pertaining to the graduate program, and committee reports.

Series 1: General Files, 1956-1984, no date, Boxes 1-11

This series contains budgets, correspondence, meeting minutes, departmental notices, enrollment numbers, survey results, and departmental procedures. Folders have been organized alphabetically, and within each folder records have been arranged chronologically.

Series 2: Department Chair Rev. Robert F. Harvanek, S.J., 1968-1985, Boxes 12-18

This series contains materials exclusive to Rev. Robert F. Harvanek, S.J., as chairperson of the Philosophy Department. Included in the series are; budgets, correspondence, meeting minutes, reports, and departmental notices. Due to the relationship between the folders in this series they have been kept in the same arrangement as they were first given to the Archives by Rev. Robert F. Harvanek, S.J. Within each folder the records are arranged chronologically.
