JOIN CLC FOR AN EVENING OF...

WELCOMING ONE ANOTHER:
A CONVERSATION ON CATHOLIC FAITH AND IMMIGRATION

OUR EXPERIENCES ARE DIVERSE—
SHARING THEM CAN BRING US CLOSER TOGETHER

WHAT: In CLC, we share how God moves in our daily lives. Accompany our panelists CLC-style as they share their lived experiences as people moved by faith to be “with and for” our immigrant neighbors.

JESUS ASKS US TO WELCOME THE STRANGER—WE WELCOME YOU TO HELP US PONDER, “HOW?”

WHEN: TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2018
6:30—7:30 P.M.

WHERE: IES BUILDING, ROOM 123/4
1032 W. SHERIDAN ROAD

Join us for free pizza and great conversation

GUEST PANELISTS:

SR. PATRICIA CROWLEY, OSB
Patricia is a native Chicaguan and a Benedictine Sister from St. Scholastica Monastery. She visits detainees in Kenosha and was instrumental in founding Bethany House of Hospitality for young immigrant women who have and aged out of children’s detention.

JOSE TORRES ‘00
Jose is the Partnerships Coordinator for the Immigration Ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago’s Office of Human Dignity and Solidarity. He works with representatives from parishes, priests, and Pastoral Migratoria leaders to advocate for policies that seek integration of immigrants in the Church and American Society.

MIKE TEDONE, SJ
Mike is a member of the US West Province of the Society of Jesus in his final year of studies at LUC. Last summer, he spent six weeks working with Kino Border Initiative, a bi-national organization working in Nogales, AZ and Nogales, Sonora, MX, serving at their comedor and accompanying high school student groups.

GUSTAVO ARREGUIN MENDOZA ‘16
Gustavo is from Salvatierra, Guanajuato in central México. While at Loyola, he supported Student Alliance for Immigration Reform by giving workshops on DACA 101, resources for undocumented students, and connecting local organizations. He now works for the Archdiocese of Chicago in supporting social justice ministries and implementing initiatives on global solidarity.
