CAREER DEVELOPMENT ADVISING

CAREER DEVELOPMENT OFFICE

Our model allows our Career Advisors to focus on specific academic programs, become familiar with the unique career-related concerns and common career paths among those groups, and create partnerships with faculty.

If you are not currently in communication with the Career Advisor who works with your discipline, please reach out to our team for collaboration in developing students’ sense of readiness for life after LUC.

THE TEAM

Catherine Archer
Career Advisor
Education, Social Work, IPS, SCPS, Arrupe College
carcher1@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Meg Sieberg
Career Advisor
Communications, CAS: Humanities, Pre-law
msieberg@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Rodney Matthews
Career Advisor
CAS: Social Sciences
rmatthews3@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Christie Asif
Career Advisor
IES, School of Nursing, Parkinson School
casif@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Erin Banicki
Career Advisor
CAS: Sciences
ebanicki@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Jon Rosenfield
Associate Director
Career Advising + Education
jrosenfield@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

SERVICES

• Career/role discernment
• Internship/job search coaching and strategy
• Online resources for search
• Classroom presentations ranging from self/career exploration and research, to opportunity searching

Our team specializes in facilitating and coaching students' exploration and research of career pathways, as well students' process of developing and communicating their professional identities.

luc.edu/career
Pre-Health advisors offer assistance to Loyola's undergraduate and post-baccalaureate students interested in pursuing health professional careers. For those students unsure of exactly what field to choose or who want general information to begin their search, Pre-Health advisors are a great starting point.

THE TEAM

James Johnson
Associate Director
Pre-Health Professions
jjohnso@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Andrea Beaumont
Pre-Health Advisor
Pre-Health Professions
abeaumont1@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Anani Moy
Pre-Health Advisor
Pre-Health Professions
amoy2@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

If you are not currently in communication with your Pre-Health Advisor, reach out to our team for collaboration in developing your students' sense of readiness for life after LUC.

luc.edu/prehealth

SERVICES

- Personal advising on health careers focusing on the individual interests of the student
- A variety of workshops to serve the needs of our students
- Information on various local volunteer opportunities
- Guidance with application processes that gives students the opportunity to work more closely with Pre-Health advisors
- Frequent updates from Pre-Health advisors on health career events and activities
- Referrals to other university resources
Business Career Services offers comprehensive career development services and resources to currently enrolled students seeking degrees and certificates as well as alumni from the Quinlan School of Business.

The staff assists business students and alumni in making satisfying and informed career decisions, setting appropriate goals, and creating opportunities to help meet those goals.

THE TEAM

N. Aminatu Rubango, MS
Associate Director
nrubango@luc.edu | 312.915.7907

Julie A. Sells, MPH
Assistant Director
Graduate Business Career Coach
j sells@luc.edu | 312.915.7816

Ashley K. Ritter, MOL
Undergraduate Business Career Coach
aritter4@luc.edu | 312.915.7813

If you are not currently in communication with your Business Career Coach liaison, reach out to our team for collaboration in developing your students' sense of readiness for life after LUC.
luc.edu/quinlan/career

SERVICES

- Career Advising & Coaching
- Career Education
- Toolkits & Sample Resumes
- Job & Internship Search
- Q Mentorship Program

Business Career Services aims to be the compass for the career and professional development of Quinlan students, graduates, and alumni — helping them find their true ambition, by exploring career options and supporting them to reach for their career and professional dreams/aspirations.
The Office of Pre-Law Advising is part of the Career Development Center and provides information and guidance to Loyola students and alumni who are considering a legal career and applying to law school.

The Team

Meg Sieberg, MSW
Career Advisor
Pre-law, Freshmen/Sophomores
msieberg@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Harveen Mann
Career Advisor
Pre-Law, Juniors/Seniors
hmann@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

If you are not currently in communication with your Pre-Law Advising liaison, reach out to our team for collaboration in developing your students' sense of readiness for life after LUC.

luc.edu/prelaw

Services

- Individual advising appointments
- Monthly updates via the Pre-Law Newsletter about local law school-related events and job and internship opportunities
- Law school admissions information sessions
- Other on-campus programming, including campus visits by Law School Admissions Personnel
- Personalized guidance during the admissions process
- Referrals to other university resources

STUDENT ACADEMIC SERVICES
The Student Employment team manages student employment positions both on campus and within the community, which is inclusive of federal work study and non-federal work study funding.

MEET OMEGA

Omega Cruz
Assistant Director
ostyles@luc.edu | 312.915.8844

If you are not currently in communication with the Student Employment team, reach out for collaboration with student employment events and resources.

luc.edu/career

SERVICES

We work to maintain strong relationships with both Loyola and community partners, while providing assistance and support to students as they navigate employment opportunities.
The Fellowship Office assists students at all levels across the university to successfully apply for major fellowships, including awards for undergraduate study, study abroad, graduate study, and research internships.

MEET LISA

Lisa Knepsheid
Fellowship Coordinator
lknepshield@luc.edu | 773.508.3029

If you are not currently in communication with your Fellowship Advising liaison, reach out to our team for collaboration
luc.edu/fellowshipoffice

SERVICES

In cooperation with Loyola faculty and staff, we work with qualified students to identify awards best suited to their goals including the Fulbright U.S. Student Program, fellowships out of the National Science Foundation, Gilman Scholarships and many others; and to navigate the application process in order to produce the most competitive proposals possible.
EMPLOYER RELATIONS
CAREER SERVICES

The Employer Relations and Operations team assists employers with recruiting and hiring qualified Loyola talent to fill full-time, entry-level and experienced professional positions, internships and part-time opportunities. They also work with students on connecting with employers that are looking for their unique skills and passions.

THE TEAM

James Connon
Senior Associate Director
Employer Relations & Recruiting
jconnon@luc.edu | 312.915.8843

Leah Brunk
Assistant Director
Employer Relations, Arrupe College
lbrunk@luc.edu | 312.915.7810

Brigette Petersen
Associate Director
Employer Operations & Communications
bpetersen@luc.edu | 312.915.8845

Danielle Burgess
Senior Coordinator
Marketing & Events
dburgess2@luc.edu | 312.915.6665

Omega Cruz
Assistant Director
Student Employment & FWS
ostyles@luc.edu | 312.915.8844

Mary NeCastro
Coordinator
Career Services & Employer Operations
mnecastro@luc.edu | 773.508.7716

Mauricio Orellana
Administrative Assistant
Business Career Services
morellana@luc.edu | 312.915.7810

SERVICES

- Handshake management
- Employer Meet & Greets
- Corporate Information Sessions
- Career Fairs & Events
- On-Campus Recruiting
- On-Campus Marketing
- Undergraduate & Graduate Programs

If you are not currently in communication with the Employer Relations team, reach out for collaboration with employer events and resources.

luc.edu/career

STUDENT ACADEMIC SERVICES