CONSULTING CAREERS: BREAKING DOWN PATHWAYS AS A CONSULTANT IN THE SCIENCES
Monday, Oct. 22, 3 PM - 5 PM, IES, 123/124
Keynote address, Q&A discussion followed by networking. Refreshments will be provided.
Jack Brunner, Operations Manager, Tetra Tech, will offer students with backgrounds across the sciences an overview of working for environmental consulting and engineering firms, including potential career paths; how environmental consulting compares to other types of environmental and science careers; types of consulting firms; and the various fields and disciplines available to students for a successful career in consulting.

HOW TO LAND THE POSITION YOU WANT: RECENT ALUMNI PROFESSIONAL PANEL
Tuesday, Oct. 23, 4 PM – 6 PM, Damen Auditorium
Panel discussion, Q&A, followed by networking. Refreshments will be provided.
Moderated by Dr. Greenberg, Undergraduate Program Director, Computer Science Dept.
Recent alumni will discuss what it takes to break in to their respective fields and how students who are either beginning internships or graduating soon can be successful in the first years of work. Panelists will offer ‘real world’ tips for preparing for life after graduation.
- Casey Brew, Biology, ‘15, Laboratory Genetic Counselor, Lurie Children’s Hospital of Chicago
- Robert (Bobby) Cohoat, Physics, ‘16, Performance Engineer Data Analyst, Operations Engineer, Invenergy
- Mary Cochran (Mistretta), Computer Science, Middleware Solutions Architect, Red Hat
- Ryan Van Portfliet, ‘15, MBA and Environmental Science, Project Developer, Invenergy
- Daoud Shafique, ‘18, Computer Science, Technology Analyst, BMO Harris Bank

CAREERS IN SCIENCE NETWORKING AND INFORMATION FAIR
Wednesday, Oct. 24, 3:30 – 5 PM, Damen MPR
Students majoring in physical sciences, life sciences, engineering and pre-health can benefit from networking with employers and graduate schools at the Careers in Science Fair. Learn about new career options in an informal, conversational setting and make connections for your future career.

CLIMATE CRISIS: LOCAL GOVERNMENT NEEDS YOU
Thursday, Oct. 25, 4 PM – 6 PM, IES 123/124
Presentation, Q&A, followed by networking. Refreshments will be provided.
Kumar Jensen, Sustainability Coordinator, City of Evanston
The global climate crisis is worsening and the potential pathways to avert a full global catastrophe are quickly dwindling. Local government and frontline communities will be the most immediately and severely impacted by climate hazards; learn what it’s like working on these global issues in local government.