Hopkins Website Launch

A Celebration of The Gerard Manley Hopkins, S.J. Official Site

Join Dr. Frank Fennell, Professor Emeritus and Living Tradition Award recipient, as he launches Hopkinspoetry.com. Cosponsored by the Hank Center and Center for Textual Studies and Digital Humanities.

September 11

3:00-5:00 PM

McCormick Lounge, LSC

---

Seeking Shelter Art Exhibit

An Exhibit Celebrating Daniel Berrigan, S.J. and William Stringfellow

From Rhode Island comes a story of friendship and courage that evokes the Vietnam War era, illuminates the parallels between then and now, and reveals the healing power of community. Closes 11/15.

September 19

10:30-12:00 PM

Damen Fireplace

Damen Student Center, LSC

---

Berrigan and Stringfellow:

With Bill Wylie-Kellerman

When we say “A faith that does justice”, what do we mean? Author and personal friend of Daniel Berrigan, S.J., Wylie-Kellerman will be speaking the legacy of Father Berrigan and his friendship with activist and theologian of Block Island, RI, William Stringfellow.

September 18

5:00 - 6:30 PM

Damen Student Center, LSC

---

Conversation:

The Berrigan Letters

Berrigan Week Symposium

The first panel of Berrigan Week features Loyola Graduate Dan Cosacchi, co-author of The Berrigan Letters: Personal Correspondence Between Daniel and Phillip Berrigan, in conversation with Professor Michelle Nickerson.

September 20

4:00 - 4:45 PM

Palm Court, LSC

---

Panel:

The New Catholic Left

Berrigan Week Symposium

Our second 9/20 event features Fred Marchant, Kathleen Ridolfi and Shawn Francis Peters speaking on the experience of Daniel Berrigan and friends as they followed conscience to action. Journalist Heidi Schlumpf (National Catholic Reporter) moderates.

September 20

5:00 - 6:30 PM

Palm Court, LSC

---

CCIH

Cuneo Hall 428 • LSC

1032 W. Sheridan Rd, Chicago, IL 60660

P 773.508.3820 W LUC.edu/ccih E HankCenter@LUC.edu
Fall 2018 Events

September 20

The Sounds of Protest

Reception with poetry and live music
Join special guest, poet Fred Marchant, for a reception closing Berrigan Week. Listen to poetry and music on the themes of conscience, protest, and peace.

6:30 PM - 8:00 PM
Piper Hall, LSC

September 26

1968 Film Series

The Green Berets (1968)

6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
Damen Cinema, LSC

October 2

1968 Film Series

The Battle of Algiers (1966)
Based on events during the Algerian War (1954–62) against the French government in North Africa. The film documents Italian surrealism and revolutionary sentiment of the era. Directed by Gillo Pontecorvo. 2hr. Post-film conversation with Professors Suzanne Kaufman (History) and Julia Elsky (Mod. Lang./Lit.).

6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
Damen Cinema, LSC

October 3

SYNOD on YOUTH

Opening of the Synod on Youth
Join the CS Minors for timely and relevant discussion and reflection as we mark the opening days of the year-long Synod on Youth.

5:00 PM - 7:00 PM
Damen Den, LSC

October 10

1968 Film Series

Where Angels Go Trouble Follows! (1968)
An old-line Mother Superior is challenged by a modern young nun when they take the girls of St. Francis Academy on a bus trip across the U.S.A. Directed by James Neilson. 1hr 33mins. Post-film conversation with Professor Bren Ortega Murphy (Communications/WSGS).

6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
Damen Cinema, LSC

October 11

Integrity and Accountability in The Catholic Church
Given the recent revelations reported in the news, our panel of experts including Justice Burke, Dr. Haselberger, and Dr. Gaillardetz will discuss what it means to seek integrity and accountability. Audience Q&A to follow after initial comments.

7:00 PM - 8:30 PM
Regents Hall, Lewis Towers WTC
October 17

An Evening with Micheal O’Siadhail
The Five Quintets

Just as Dante, in his Divine Comedy, summed up the middle ages on the cusp of modernity, The Five Quintets takes stock of a late modern world on the cusp of the first ever global century. Join us for readings and conversation with one of the world’s great living poets.

7:00 PM - 9:00 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

October 18

Global ’68 Symposium
Day 1: Catholics at a Crossroads

The second panel explores developments and tensions in the changing church of 1968-from questions of doctrine, dogma, & style to the lived theologies of peace, justice & inclusion—questions that remain central. Speakers include Susan Ross, Aaron Pidel, S.J., Miguel Diaz.

6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

October 18

1968 Film Series

The film follows a Mexican middle class family through the atrocities committed by army forces against students protesting the 1968 Olympic games. Directed by Jorge Fons. 1hr 36mins. Post-film conversation with Professor Hector Garcia (Mod. Lang. Lit./WSGS).

October 22

1968 Film Series
Medium Cool (1989)

A TV news reporter finds himself becoming personally involved in the violence that erupts around the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago. Directed by Haskell Wexler. 1 hr 51 mins. Post-film conversation with Professors John Goheen (Film & Digital Media), and Ellie Shermer (History).

6:00 PM - 9:00 PM
Damen Cinema, LSC

October 24

Global’68 Symposium
Day 2: Chicago in 1968

Join us for a close look at the many events and movements taking place in the city of Chicago - ground zero for so many of the political, cultural, and social convulsions of 1968. Speakers include David Farber, Nelson Lichtenstein, and Peter Pihos.

2:30-4:00 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

October 25

Global 1968 Symposium
Day 1: Resistance and Riots, Murders and Martyrs

The first panel for our three day symposium is discussion on public citizenship, violence, and the psychological tension of power and peace-making that marked the era. Speakers include Firmin De Brabender, Don Stemen and Kathleen Belew.

4:30-6:00 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

Cuneo Hall 428 • LSC
1032 W. Sheridan Rd, Chicago, IL 60660
P 773.508.3820 W LUC.edu/ccih E HankCenter@LUC.edu
Global ’68 Symposium
Day 2: Struggles for Justice: Race, Class, Gender, and Immigration in 1968
Discussions on issues of justice that are as relevant now as they were in 1968. Speakers include Judy Woo, Malgorzata Fidelis, and Alan Dillingham.

October 25
4:15-5:45 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

Global 1968 Symposium
Keynote Lecture: The Times and Spaces of 1968
Fifty years ago in 1968, the world was on fire. Youth protests and civil unrest spread throughout the entire world. Boston College historian Julian Bourg will discuss the many times and spaces of 1968, and how the legacies of the Sixties continue to shape our politics and culture today.

October 25
7:30-8:30 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

Global ’68 Symposium
Day 3: The Mexican Spirit of 1968 Lives On - ¡ El 2 de Octubre No Se Olvida! Day three of our symposium begins with a discussion of the events and protests in Mexico leading up to, during, and after the ‘68 Olympics. Speakers include Dr. Sergio Aguayo and Dra. Gema Santamaría.

October 26
1:00-2:30 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

Global ’68 Symposium
Day 3: Years of the Student
Our concluding conversation will be among students from two very similar years, 1968 & 2018. Join us as Loyola students past and present reflect on the power of young people to effect transformational political, social and spiritual change.

October 26
3:00-4:30 PM
McCormick Lounge, LSC

Global ’68 Symposium
Day 3: Folk Mass
Join us for the closing mass of the Global ’68 Symposium (featuring folk liturgical music) - a celebration in prayer community and song, that honors the courage and conviction of the prophetic spirit. All are welcome.

October 26
5:00-6:00 PM
East Quad, LSC

1968 Film Series
Planet of the Apes (1968)
An astronaut crew crash-lands on a planet in the distant future where intelligent talking apes are the dominant species, and humans are the oppressed and enslaved. Directed by F. J. Schnaffner. 1hr 52mins. Post-film discussion with Professor Michael Murphy (Theology).

October 30
6:00PM - 9:00PM
Damen Cinema, LSC
November 7

Midterm Postmortem Round-table

Behind the Tweets
Loyola discusses the results of the Midterm election. Participants in our round-table include Leandra Zarnow, Michael P. Murphy, Ben Johnson and Amanda Bryan. Professor Elizabeth Shermer (History) moderates.

November 8

The Legacy of Medellín:

Option for the Poor and Human Rights in Latin America
In 1968, the Conference of Latin American Bishops in Medellín, Columbia recalled all Catholics to “the awareness of our duty of solidarity with the poor.” Join Professor Miguel H. Diaz, former U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See, and two former U.S. Ambassadors to Latin America, Carmen Lomellin (Organization of American States) and Wally Brewster (Dominican Republic), as they reflect on the 50th anniversary of the watershed meeting.

December 7-8

‘Disappear From View’?

Thomas Merton Fifty Years Later and Beyond.
Conference commemorating the 50th anniversary of Metron’s death with Keynote Speaker Richard Rohr, OFM. Cosponsored by the Hank Center, CTU, the Chicago Chapter of the ITMS and the Bernardin Center at CTU.

1968 Series

The 1968 Series is Co-Sponsored by the Departments of History, Modern Languages and Literatures, Theology, Political Science, Film and Digital Media, The College of Arts and Sciences, Ramonat Seminar and the University Libraries.