

Center for Urban Research and Learning

Friday Morning Seminars—Fall 2015

Celebrating our 20th Year!

DATE	TOPIC	PRESENTER
August 28	The Structure of Cuban Communities, and the Commitment to Social Justice	Joy Gordon, Ignacio Ellacuría, S.J. Professor of Social Ethics, Department of Philosophy, LUC
September 4	Measuring Health and Health Disparities Using Self-Rated Health	Dana Garbarski, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, LUC
September 11	The Second Industrial Revolution in Chicago: Innovation for Social Transformation	Dan Swinney, Executive Director, Manufacturing Renaissance
September 18	What Is & What Could Be: Theatre of the Oppressed, Hope, and Concrete Struggle	Kelly Howe, Assistant Professor of Theatre, Department of Fine and Performing Arts, LUC
September 25	Living in Poverty: An Experiential Interprofessional Simulation	Jorgia Connor, Assistant Professor, Director of the Traditional BSN Program, School of Nursing, LUC
October 2	Re-Designing Community Mental Health Services for Urban Children: Supporting Schooling to Promote Mental Health	Marc Atkins, Professor of Psychiatry and Psychology, Director of Psychology Training in Psychiatry, and Director of Research at the Institute for Juvenile Research, University of Illinois at Chicago
October 9	Civic Tech: Digital Literacy and Power in Chicago Neighborhoods	Demond Drummer, Founder of CoderSpace
October 16	The Impact of the 606/Bloomingdale Trail on Logan Square	Lucy Gomez-Feliciano, Health Outreach Director/Active Living Logan Square; John McDermott, Housing and Land Use Director; Logan Square Neighborhood Association
October 23	Place-Making from Below: The Politics of Community Benefits Agreements and Equitable Development in Detroit	Amy Krings, Assistant Professor, School of Social Work, LUC
October 30	Domestic Violence: Recent Research and Policy Innovations	Christine George, Associate Research Professor, CURL, LUC; Leslie Landis, Cook County Domestic Violence Division Court Administrator; Stephanie Riger, CURL Visiting Scholar
November 6	No Seminar - 20th Year Event
November 13	CURL Alums Reflection on 20 Years
November 20	Scaling Up: Creating Grassroots Change on the City, State, and National Level	Phil Nyden, Director, CURL, LUC; Teresa Neumann, University-Community Research Coordinator, CURL, LUC; Sean Young, Graduate Fellow, CURL, LUC; Andrew Tonachel, Leader, ONE Northside and Staff, Alternatives INC.
November 27	No Seminar - Thanksgiving
December 4	Urban Agriculture: Opportunities and Challenges in Building an Urban-Based Food System	Kevin Erickson, Urban Agriculture Coordinator, Institute of Environmental Sustainability, LUC

CURL Friday Morning Seminars are held on Friday mornings from 10:30am until 12:00pm in Cuneo Hall, 417.

Loyola faculty, students, staff, community members, and guests are welcome. Visit CURL's website (www.luc.edu/curl/fridaymorningseminars/) to confirm specific presentations.

