Loyola University Chicago
Preferred Name Policy
Last updated 2/17/2022

I. Purpose and Scope

Loyola University Chicago is committed to creating an inclusive environment for all. We recognize that faculty, staff, and students may use names other than their legal names to identify themselves. Except when an individual’s legal name is required by law, policy, or business needs, current employees and current students may choose to be identified in some university systems by the preferred name that they have designated in accordance with this policy.

II. Definitions

Preferred name – An alternative to the individual’s legal first, middle, and/or last name.
Legal name – A person’s legal first, middle, and last name as it appears on official governmental documents such as licenses, passports, social security cards, birth certificates and tax forms.
Primary name – A person’s legal name presumed in LOCUS/LAWSON and other systems.

III. Policy

Many members of the Loyola community use a name that differs from their legal/primary name. Allowable name formats might include (but are not limited to):

- A shortened derivative of a name (e.g., “Sue” for “Susan”)
- A middle name instead of a first name
- A different last name
- Initials (e.g., “A.J.”)
- A name that is chosen to represent the individual’s identity (e.g., “Peter” instead of “Xingyu”)
- A name that better represents the individual’s gender identity
- A name to which the individual is in the process of legally changing

Loyola University will not accept a preferred name that is vulgar, offensive, or obscene, creates confusion of the individual with another individual, is an attempt to avoid a legal obligation, or otherwise constitutes a misuse or abuse of this policy. Name changes are subject to review at any point in time by the Name Change Review Board (NCRB). The NCRB consists of the Dean of Students, Executive Director for Diversity and Inclusion and Assistant Provost for Diversity or their designees.
Preferred names will be used where reasonably possible in the course of University business and education. Name changes on the Campus Card will require the posted replacement fee. Some examples of where preferred names may be used include but are not limited to:
