Join immigrant advocates to discuss nationality, race, gender, sexuality, class, and other ways immigrants think of themselves and are perceived by others.

Co-sponsored by:
History Graduate Student Association (HGSA) & Loyola’s Student Innovation Fund

For more information contact:
justhistoryloyola@gmail.com

Immigrant Identity Panel

Elsie Hector-Hernandez of the Haitian American Museum of Chicago

Stephanie Camba
engaging in activism as a writer, singer, and artist performing as Soultree

Karina Ayala-Bermejo of Instituto del Progreso Latino

Jorge Mujica of Arise Chicago

Dr. Hector Garcia-Chavez of the Latin American and Latino Studies program at Loyola

Join immigrant advocates to discuss nationality, race, gender, sexuality, class, and other ways immigrants think of themselves and are perceived by others.

Immigration Advocacy History Project

Monday, November 12, 2018

Cuneo 109

6:00pm - 7:30pm