

Look at all the families below. They are all very different! Who do you think is in each family?

1. Cut out the different families.
2. Stick them in your work book or on another piece of paper.
3. Write underneath who you think might be in each family.
4. Can you draw another family (or maybe your own) and write down who is in it?

