Reason for Application

(Please check only one and be sure to review necessary items which must be submitted along with this form.)

- I applied to Loyola University within the last two years, but had an incomplete file and wish to apply again.
- I was admitted to Loyola University sometime during the last two years but did not enroll.
- I am currently enrolled as a non-degree student and wish to apply to a certificate or degree program.
- I am currently enrolled and wish to change programs within Loyola University.
- I wish to change programs on an existing application.
- I wish to apply to an additional certificate or degree program.
- I have recently graduated from a Loyola University graduate program and would like to return as a graduate-level non-degree seeking student or begin a new graduate degree program.

Please submit a new statement with this form to Graduate and Professional Enrollment Management. If you are applying to a new or additional program, be sure to visit <http://luc.edu/gpem> to check that program's application requirements. Additional documents may be required.

- I have been denied admission to Loyola University during the last two years and wish to apply again.

Applicants previously denied are not required, but are encouraged, to submit new or updated materials, such as test scores, letters of recommendation, statement of purpose, or resume that might provide new information for the reviewers. Unless you have completed additional coursework or have completed a degree, you do not need to resend previously submitted transcripts.

RN-to-BSN re-applicants must submit an updated resume and a personal statement that explains any changes to their application that would reflect a change in his or her application file.

- I wish to return to the same program from which I withdrew or stopped attending.

Please submit this form along with a statement explaining your reason for return and plan for program completion directly to your program.

- I am returning from an approved Leave of Absence.

No additional materials are required. Please submit this form directly to your program.

I hereby certify that the information given by me on this application is complete and accurate.
