

LUC-NOYCE SCHOLARS

Congratulations & welcome to our 4th Cohort!

Emily Dennis-Math

Megan Frasik-Math

Alyssa Hoffmann-Biology

Kemunto Ondande-Math

LUC-Noyce Scholars complete their teacher preparation in science or math and go on to serve in high-need school districts.

With funding from the National Science Foundation's Robert Noyce Teacher Scholarship Program, the LUC-Noyce Scholars program is a collaboration between faculty in the School of Education, Center for Science and Math Education (CSME) and College of Arts & Sciences, as well as with Chicago Public Schools and our area school and cultural institution partners.

Audrey Brinkers-Biology

Antonio Castillo-Chemistry

Scarlet Chan-Biology

Cassandra Cowperthwaite-Math

Adam Davenport-Physics

Sarah DeFrancesco-Chemistry

Isabella DiPaolo-Math

Dennis Fisher-Math

Shannon Le-Biology

Maksymilian Malec-Physics

Matea Nikolic-Math

Emily Petersen-Math

Joseph Remeika-Biology

Brianne Saab-Math

Niki Safakas-Chemistry

Sarah Wohler-Biology

Find out more about the LUC-Noyce Scholars program here!