HOW TO CHOOSE A TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM
Choose the right college/university

WHAT TEACHERS CAN DO
- Instructing students of various ages
- Coaching at schools or for youth recreation leagues
- Become superintendents, principals, school administrators
- Teaching day care centers and youth camps

ACCREDITATION
- Is the program nationally accredited and/or recognized by the state?

EMPLOYMENT
- Does the program work with local districts and have high employment rates?

PROGRAM BENEFITS
- Are there alumni employed in the area you’d like to work?
- Do the schools offer appealing education specialties?
- How quickly will you have experience in schools?
- Are there scholarships and study abroad opportunities?

PROGRAM COMPLETION
- Does the school offer resources to assist students with license exams and prepare them to find jobs after graduation?

Check out Loyola University’s Teacher Education Program (Link)