Sequence Five Overview

This sequence focuses on literacy and data-based decision making. Module 310 places candidates in a literacy block to acquire knowledge and skills in the assessing and teaching of basic language and literacy skills. Module 320 engages students in the use of data to measure objective mastery, measure student growth, and modify instruction. Module 330 involves candidates in a content area where they co-teach and teach personally designed lessons, utilizing sheltered strategies, informational texts and technology. They integrate and apply the assessment knowledge and skills learned in the previous module.

TLLSC Handbook:

The handbook for TLLSC is posted on Sakai. All Candidates are required to read this and to complete the “Certificate of Understanding” on Live Text during the first week of classes.

Sequence 5 Participation Policy:

It is expected that teacher candidates in Sequence 5 schools will demonstrate high levels of professionalism and responsibility in all aspects of their work in this sequence. In order to complete the module assessments and requirements in a satisfactory manner, candidates must be present for all sessions, both while in the PK – 8 classrooms and in the sequence instructional sessions on campus and at the school site. In the event of approved absences, candidates should contact their professors and school sites in the manner that is requested by the administration at the respective sites. Highest professional levels of presentation in communication, attitude and appearance are expected to be in line with what is required of school faculty. Jeans or casual clothing will not be permitted. Technology may not be used for personal purposes. Each school site will provide additional guidelines for candidates to follow. In the event of illness, candidates must contact their course instructors, classroom teachers and school office in the manner requested by the school as soon as possible.

Conceptual Framework Standards for Sequence Five

The School of Education at Loyola University Chicago, a Jesuit and Catholic urban university, supports the Jesuit ideal of knowledge in the service of humanity. We endeavor to advance professional education in the service of social justice, engaged with Chicago, the nation, and the world. To achieve this vision the School of Education participates in the discovery, development, demonstration, and dissemination of professional knowledge and practice within a context of ethics, service to others, and social justice. We fulfill this mission by preparing professionals to serve as teachers, administrators, psychologists, and researchers; by conducting research on issues of professional practice and social justice; and by partnering with schools and community agencies to enhance life-long learning in the Chicago area.

Specifically grounded in the overarching principles of Social Action through Education, this module focuses on the policies and practices that impact the instruction and assessment of diverse students in urban schools, emphasizing the role of the teacher in making educational decisions and advocating for students. Additionally, candidates must demonstrate understanding of educational policy and critically evaluate practices in a variety of classroom and school settings.

In this sequence, two conceptual framework standards are addressed. They are:

CFS2: Candidates apply culturally responsive practices that engage diverse communities.

CFS3: Candidates demonstrate knowledge of ethics and social justice.

Dispositions:

Each sequence and module in the Teaching and Learning with Schools and Communities Program (TLSC) focuses on several professional dispositions. Candidates are offered opportunities to receive feedback on their dispositional growth. The specific disposition or dispositions for each module are listed on this syllabus under module in which they are emphasized and assessed. Please consult Live Text www.livetext.com for access to the complete set of rubrics and statements for each module.

Candidates in all modules will be assessed on the dispositions of Professionalism, Inquiry, and Social Justice, in addition to specific dispositions listed under each module.

Sequence Five Summative Assessment:

This is a combined TLLSC Sequence Five Culminating Event that will include teacher candidates from all sections and areas in Sequence Five. Candidates will prepare 3 sided poster board displays or develop professional presentations utilizing technology to showcase their school based classroom experiences and present them during this session. Following this, small group discussions will focus on highlighting, connecting and integrating course content and clinical experiences across the TLLSC Areas: ECE/SPED, ELEM/SPED, & SEC. In addition to the visual presentation, they will write an essay utilizing guiding prompts to discuss their professional observations and growth based on their experiences in Sequence Five. The candidates' specific Sequence Five instructors will assess posters, presentations and essays. The rubric for this assessment will be posted in Live Text, and grade credit will be applied and included in all three modules. Candidates will be expected to complete this assessment during the final PLC weeks in the semester. The grades from this summative assessment will be factored into the final grades for each of the three modules, where they will be worth 15% of each grade.

TLSC 310 (2 credit hours) Language and Literacy for Diverse Students Teaching and Assessing Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Students

TLSC 310 Module Description

This module focuses on the teaching of reading skills developmentally appropriate for the grade level teaching endorsement range of the teacher candidate. Emphasized are Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts (CCSS-ELA) across all literacy areas: Reading Foundational Skills, Reading Literature, Reading Informational Text, Writing, Speaking and Listening, and Language. In on-site school experiences, teacher candidates will work with core curriculum and the use of informal and formal assessments to determine student instructional needs and to target instructional interventions to them. Evidence-based instructional practices designed to address and adapt to the needs of culturally and linguistically diverse learners will be emphasized. Teacher candidates will work with classroom teachers to select high quality print non- print and technological resources for teaching literacy skills for use in the lessons that they prepare and teach. All experiences will be integrated within the Multi Tier System of Support Framework.

- This module focuses on literacy (i.e. reading, writing, speaking, listening) with the broad lens of all students in a given grade level range and an emphasis on the connection between language and literacy for culturally and linguistically diverse students. Since language (i.e., listening and speaking) and literacy (i.e., reading and writing) are inherently connected through receptive (i.e., listening and reading) and productive (i.e., speaking and writing) domains, using instructional strategies for both language and literacy here will better prepare teachers for classroom contexts with language learners. Part of two modules focused on methodology for culturally and linguistically diverse students, this module focuses on language and literacy instruction and assessment in English language arts.
- Whereas all teacher candidates will engage in this module at a school with ELs, candidates in the bilingual endorsement program will be placed in bilingual classrooms to ensure content application to the context of bilingual education.
- Beginning in this module, candidates will be expected to consider the role of academic language in their instruction and plan specifically to support the development of academic language for all students in the classroom.

Smart Evaluation

Towards the end of the course, students will receive an email from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness as a reminder to provide feedback on the course. Students will receive consistent reminders throughout the period when the evaluation is open, and the reminders will stop once the evaluation is completed.

- The evaluation is completely anonymous. When the results are released, instructors and departments will not be able to tell which student provided the individual feedback.
- Because it is anonymous and the results are not released to faculty or departments until after grades have been submitted, the feedback will not impact a student's grade.
- The feedback is important so that the instructor can gain insight in to how to improve their teaching and the department can learn how best to shape the curriculum.

Dispositions

All students are assessed on one or more dispositional areas of growth across our programs: Professionalism, Inquiry, and Social Justice. The instructor in your course will identify the dispositions assessed in this course and you can find the rubrics related to these dispositions in LiveText. For those students in non-degree programs, the rubric for dispositions may be available through Sakai, TaskStream or another platform. Disposition data is reviewed by program faculty on a regular basis. This allows faculty to work with students to develop throughout their program and address any issues as they arise.

LiveText

All students, except those who are non-degree, must have access to LiveText to complete the benchmark assessments aligned to the Conceptual Framework Standards and all other accreditation, school-wide and/or program-wide related assessments. You can access more information on LiveText here: LiveText.
