Assessment and Diagnosis of Reading Problems Loyola University Chicago

Social Action through Education

TIME & LOCATION: Fall 2021
Tuesdays 5:30-8:00 pm CST – Face to Face
Cuneo Hall - Room 116

DATES:
Tuesdays August 31 – December 7

INSTRUCTOR: Ashley Ramirez, MEd
CONTACT INFO: aprangle@luc.edu
847-226-5924 (cell)
OFFICE HOURS: before or after class or via Zoom
by appointment
RESPONSIVENESS: Emails will be responded to within 24 hours during the school week

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This assessment and diagnosis course provides the foundation knowledge and experiences in reading assessment and diagnosis that would be necessary for elementary or secondary classroom reading teachers. Both formal and informal methods of screening will be emphasized, individually and as part of classroom instruction. Specific tests and measures designed to assess significant elements of learning to read, such as knowledge of print, prior knowledge and vocabulary, word recognition, fluency and reading comprehension will be presented. Data based decision making and problem solving within a systematic response will be emphasized. Reading teachers will recognize that reading is an active and complex process that involves skills, strategies, prior knowledge and purposes for reading within a goal-oriented process. Practical applications and contemporary issues such as high stakes testing will be highlighted.

COURSE OUTCOMES:

Candidates will...

- Administer a variety of literacy assessments.
- Analyze assessment data for use in a classroom and in a school.
- Determine which assessments work best for which students.
- Use assessment data to plan instruction and intervention.
- Understand how instruction and interventions can be evaluated using progress monitoring.
- Understand how effective collaboration is when using assessment data.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

McKenna, M. & Dougherty Stahl, K. (2019). Assessment for reading instruction (4th ed.). New York: Guilford Press.

3rd Edition of this text may also be purchased

NOTE: Additional readings may be posted on Sakai. Additional readings will be assigned as is needed at the discretion of the instructor.

Texts that will be demonstrated and shared in class:

Bear, D. R., Invernizzi, M. A., Templeton, S. A., & Johnston, F. A. (2016). Words their way: Word study for phonics, vocabulary, and spelling instruction (6th ed.). New York: Pearson.

Leslie, L. & Schudt Caldwell, J. (2016). Qualitative reading inventory (6th ed.). New York: Pearson.

School of Education Commitment - COVID-19: Loyola's School of Education (SOE) recognizes that this is an unprecedented time. We understand that moving into the 2021-2022 academic year while living in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic may stir feelings of uncertainty, fear, or anxiousness. We want you to know that your safety, health, and well-being, as well as that of our faculty and staff, remain our primary concern. We want to be able to support you in any way that we can. We ask you to embody the Jesuit value of Cura Personalis, or care for the whole person, as we prepare to learn together. We ask that you consider your way of being in this community, to act with care, and treat all with dignity to keep yourself and others safe. If you are not feeling well, please use Loyola's SYMPTOM Checker. It can be found on the webpage or APP Loyola Health under the COVID -19 Related Information Tab at the top of the page.

The University understands that you may encounter obstacles that make reaching academic goals more difficult. We strongly encourage you to access the Student Resources on Loyola's COVID-19 Response webpage for information, supports, and resources on basic needs such as housing, food, financial aid, and medical and mental health. This web page also offers information on official University communications, access to technology, and student services. All Loyola University Chicago administrators, faculty, and advisors are also here for you.

The SOE is committed to working with all students to address any challenges that may arise during the semester. Please reach out to your professor as early as possible to discuss any accommodations you think may be necessary in order for you to successfully complete your coursework. Active and engaged communication with all of your professor is encouraged. We know the FALL 2021 Return to Campus will be like no other, but through collaboration, communication, and shared responsibility, we will not only get through this difficult time; we will thrive.

COVID-19 Required Personal Safety Practices: We all have a part to play in preventing the spread of COVID-19. Following a simple set of required personal safety practices can lower your own risk of being infected and can help protect others. All members of the Loyola community are expected to follow these practices while on any of the University's campuses. Face masks or face coverings must be worn by all students, faculty, and staff while on any of Loyola's campuses, when in the presence of others, in classrooms, and in public settings where other social distancing measures are difficult to maintain. Appropriate use of face masks or coverings is critical in minimizing the risks to others around you, as you can spread COVID-19 to others even if you do not feel sick. Please be sure to review all LUC REQUIRED Safety Protocols.

COVID-19 Reporting Protocol: In preparation for our upcoming semester, Loyola University Chicago's Emergency Response Management team has been working to develop protocols in accordance with Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines that help ensure the health and safety of our community. Given the rising number of COVID-19 cases across our country, it is very likely that incidence within our community will occur in the fall.

Students, faculty, and staff who have tested positive for COVID-19 must report their case to the University as soon as possible. If you have tested positive for the virus, please contact us at covid-19report@LUC.edu or by calling 773-508-7707. All COVID-19-related questions or feedback should continue to be sent to covid-19support@LUC.edu, not the new case reporting email address.

SOE Vision

The School of Education of Loyola University Chicago is a community that seeks to transform members to impact local and global communities through the principles of social justice.

School of Education Mission

The School of Education at Loyola University Chicago, a Jesuit Catholic urban university, supports the Jesuit ideal of knowledge in the service of humanity. We endeavor to advance professional education in service of social justice, engaged with Chicago, the nation, and the world. To achieve this vision, the School of Education participates in the discovery, development, demonstration, and dissemination of professional knowledge and practice within a context of ethics, service to others, and social justice. We fulfill this mission by preparing professionals to serve as teachers, administrators, psychologists, and researchers who work across the developmental continuum, and by conducting research on issues of professional practice and social justice.

Conceptual Framework and Conceptual Framework Standards

Assessment is necessary to determine the learning needs of all students. It is through assessment that we can differentiate and make learning meaningful for all students. By providing meaningful, thoughtful learning for all, we are acting on the social justice mission of Chicago's Jesuit University:

Social Action through Education.

SOE Conceptual Framework Standards (CFS)

- CFS1: Candidates critically evaluate current bodies of knowledge in their field.
- CFS2: Candidates apply culturally responsive practices that engage diverse communities.
- CFS3: Candidates demonstrate knowledge of ethics and social justice.
- CFS4: Candidates engage with local and/or global communities in ethical and socially just practices.

Dispositions

Professionalism, Inquiry, and Social Justice

Assignment A: Participation will directly assess these three dispositions, but be sure that your writing, synchronous participation, online participation, and interaction at schools with all stakeholders must always reflect these three dispositions. See pages 9-10, LiveText or Sakai for the rubric.

Class Conduct

One important aspect of a Jesuit education is learning to respect the rights and opinions of others. Please respect others by (1) allowing all classmates the right to voice their opinions without fear of ridicule, and (2) not using profanity or making objectionable (gendered, racial or ethnic) comments, especially comments directed at a classmate. Please keep this policy in mind during in class discussions and in our online Forum.

Please note the following additional information related to this course:

- The course schedule listed below is an initial, tentative schedule. Please consult the Sakai Website regularly for class notices, schedule updates, descriptions of assignments, and grading rubrics.
- Students will be expected to be prepared for class and have assignments submitted on the dates listed. Assignments will not be accepted via email unless specifically requested by the instructor. Assignments handed in late may be accepted, but full points will not be awarded.
- Students may not re-do assignments or expect that extra credit will be accepted. As a result, it is important to make an appointment for special help prior to the date an assignment is due, if extra assistance is needed.

ABSENCES: Students are expected to notify the instructor if they are going to be absent by email or phone before the start of class. One excused absence is allowed for illness or a family emergency. After this excused absence, you will be expected to do a make-up assignment.

Assignments – Brief Description and Due Dates

ASSIGNMENTS

- ✓ All assignments are due at 11:55 pm the night of the due date unless otherwise noted.
- ✓ All written assignments completed outside of class must be submitted in Microsoft Word. Please do not submit PDFs unless it is an assessment protocol like the Classroom Composite or Classroom Organization Chart.
- ✓ All assignments completed outside of class must be submitted to Sakai unless otherwise noted.
- ✓ Electronic submissions only, please.

C. Emergent Reader Assessment	October 19	50
D. Developmental Spelling Assessment	November 2	50
E. Informal Reading Inventory Assessment	November 16	100
F. Case Study and Presentation	December 7	125
TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE: 515

A.) Participation

Will be assessed through LiveText

140 points

Rubric on pages 8-9

Participation will be assessed each class. Participation means the following with these dispositions in mind: professionalism, inquiry, and social justice:

- thoughtfully reading the assignment(s) before class
- actively thinking and talking in class

- not focusing on laptop/tablet/phone inappropriately
- thoughtfully and professionally discussing in small groups
- thoughtfully participating in online forums for online classes

B.) Affective Factor Assessment

Sakai

50 points

Due: September 28

Choose the data from an interest inventory, reading attitude survey, or motivation to read profile assessment discussed in class.

- Review the raw data from the assessment.
- Score the results.
- Analyze the results.
- Reflect on the results as well as the usefulness and accuracy of this assessment.

SUBMIT ONE THING: A 2-3 page reflection

(Use the Assessment Reflection Template and the rubric as a guide for this reflection paper.)

C) Emergent Reader Assessment

Sakai

50 points

Due: October 19

Choose either a phonics, letter sound, book handling, or phonemic awareness assessment.

- Watch the video of that assessment being administered.
- Reflect on the administration of the assessment.
- Score the assessment
- Analyze the results.
- Reflect on the results as well as the usefulness and accuracy of this assessment.

SUBMIT TWO THINGS: A 2-3 page reflection and a scanned copy of the assessment

(Use the Assessment Reflection Template and the rubric as a guide for this reflection paper.)

D) Developmental Spelling Assessment

Sakai

50 points

Due: November 2

Group project*

Students will work in groups of 3-4 to analyze the data of a class set of Words Their Way developmental spelling assessment.

- Score the assessment using the Features Guide and determine each students' spelling stage.
- Complete the Classroom Composite.
- Complete the Classroom Organization Chart.
- Reflect on the results as well as the usefulness and accuracy of this assessment. (Students will complete an individual reflection)

SUBMIT THREE THINGS: A 2-3 page paper, Classroom Composite, and Classroom Organization Chart (Use the Assessment Reflection Template and the rubric as a guide for this reflection paper.)

E.) Informal Reading Inventory Assessment

Sakai

100 points

Due on November 16

Choose either primary or intermediate grade level.

- a.) Watch the IRI video of your chosen grade.
- b.) Score the word list.
- c.) Score the accuracy, fluency, and comprehension components of the running record.
- d.) Analyze the results.
- e.) Reflect on the results as well as the usefulness and accuracy of this assessment.

SUBMIT TWO THINGS: A 2-3 page reflection and a scanned copy of the assessment
(Use the Assessment Reflection Template and the rubric as a guide for this reflection paper.)

F.) Case Student Report and Presentation

Sakai

125 points

Due on December 7

Group project*

Small groups will be provided the raw reading assessment data for a single student to analyze and complete a formal written case study. The Written Reports of Case Studies will follow the models in Appendix of the Assessment for Reading Instruction text (McKenna & Stahl). This will be due at the conclusion of the semester and will include the following elements:

- a) background information
- b) description of tests administered
- c) data from tests administered
- d) observations during testing
- e) summary of results
- f) recommendations

Data will be shared from the case study in a 10-15 minute oral presentation.

Assignment A: Participation

Disposition Domains for Teaching and Learning

Candidates commit to the following dispositions:

Inquiry: Candidates discipline-recognized processes for generating new knowledge in order to expand their theoretical understandings, ability to solve problems and analyze programs. They will deepen their personal understandings, improve their practice, and apply their learning about communities, families and students. Candidates will draw upon or collect various forms of data and information including literature, quantitative and qualitative data, formal and informal assessments, information about students, families and communities, and personal reflection when generating new knowledge. Candidates use their inquiry-based generated knowledge using multiple sources to inform their instruction and promote learning for all.

Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Partially Meets Expectations	Does not Meet Expectations
Candidate demonstrates the ability to generate own knowledge by carrying out discipline-recognized, systematic approaches to gathering and using multiple forms of data to inform instruction and promote learning for all.	Candidate demonstrates the ability to generate own knowledge by carrying out systematic approaches to gathering and using data to inform instruction and promote learning for all.	Candidate demonstrates the ability to generate own knowledge by gathering and using data with little connection to instruction or promoting learning.	Candidate does not demonstrate the ability to carry out systematic approaches to gathering data.

Social Justice: Candidates adopt a stance of affirming and welcoming diversity in both local and global communities. They demonstrate respect for and understanding of differences across and within groups through their spoken and written course contributions as well as in the actions they take. Candidates promote social justice by taking ethically guided actions to challenge practices and policies that promote or perpetuate injustices and inequities. Candidates demonstrate their commitment to continuing to develop their understanding around issues of diversity. They further demonstrate their commitment to contribute to the work of preventing and/or undoing injustices by advocating for individuals, populations, or groups who currently are, or have historically been, oppressed and marginalized through covert and overt practices on the part of institutions or individuals.

Candidates consistently welcome and affirm diversity at all levels and demonstrate respect and understanding of differences across groups in their academic and/or field-based work. In their written, spoken, and collaborative course contributions, candidates continuously examine and challenge their own beliefs about equity and social justice. Candidates successfully demonstrate importance of social context as they insightfully apply ethically guided analysis to challenge practices and/or policies that promote or perpetuate injustices and inequities. Smart Evaluation

Towards the end of the course, students will receive an email from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness reminding them to provide feedback on the course. They will receive consistent reminders throughout the period when the evaluation is open, and the reminders will stop once they have completed the evaluation.

- The evaluation is completely anonymous. When the results are released, instructors and departments will not be able to tell which student provided the individual feedback.
- Because it is anonymous and the results are not released to faculty or departments until after grades have been submitted, the feedback will not impact a student's grade.

The feedback is important so that the instructor can gain insight in to how to improve their teaching and the department can learn how best to shape the curriculum.

Dispositions

All students are assessed on one or more dispositional areas of growth across our programs: Professionalism, Inquiry, and Social Justice. The instructor in your course will identify the dispositions assessed in this course and you can find the rubrics related to these dispositions in LiveText. For those students in non-degree programs, the rubric for dispositions may be available through Sakai, TaskStream or another platform. Disposition data is reviewed by program faculty on a regular basis. This allows faculty to work with students to develop throughout their program and address any issues as they arise.

LiveText and Digication

All students, except those who are non-degree, must have access to LiveText to complete the benchmark assessments aligned to the Conceptual Framework Standards and all other accreditation, school-wide and/or program-wide related assessments. You can access more information on LiveText here: LiveText.

Digication is Loyola's ONLINE portfolio platform. Many of the School of Education programs utilize Digication for Assessment and data collection to manage accreditation and licensure requirements. Your professor and Program chair will work with you to better understand submission requirements that are specific to courses and programs.

Special Circumstances--Receiving Assistance

Students are urged to contact me should they have questions concerning course materials and procedures. If you have any special circumstance that may have some impact on your course work, please let me know so we can establish a plan for assignment completion. If you require assignment accommodations, please contact me early in the semester so that arrangements can be made with Student Accessibility Center (SAC) (<http://www.luc.edu/sac/>).

Center for Student Access and Assistance (CSAA)

Should you encounter an unexpected crisis during the semester (e.g., securing food or housing, addressing mental health concerns, managing a financial crisis, and/or dealing with a family emergency, etc.), I strongly encourage you to contact the Office of the Dean of Students by submitting a CARE Referral for yourself or a peer in need of support: www.LUC.edu/csaa. If you are uncomfortable doing so on your own, please know that I can submit a referral on your behalf.

This link directs students to statements on essential policies regarding academic honesty, accessibility, ethics line reporting and electronic communication policies and guidelines. We ask that you read each policy carefully. This link will also bring you to the full text of our conceptual framework that guides the work of the School of Education – Social Action through Education.
