Conceptual Framework

This course embodies the conceptual framework –Social Action through Education– of the School of Education (SOE) at Loyola University Chicago. As teachers, we recognize our connection to students as individuals and as members of a larger community. We serve others (students as well as families and communities) by creating experiences that encourage creative, moral and intellectual development. Leaders in our classrooms and larger school communities, we must consider how education can be transformational and how we might be agents of change. In this course sequence, we will explore what it means to hold high expectations for all learners that include academically challenging, personally and socially relevant knowledge and complex learning skills. In order to successfully provide opportunities for youth to meet these expectations, we must also be committed to reflecting on our own practice and to continually developing our own knowledge, skills and professional dispositions.

Dispositions

Each sequence and module in the Teaching and Learning with Schools and Communities Program (TLSC) focuses on several professional dispositions. Candidates are offered opportunities to receive feedback on their dispositional growth. The teacher candidate commits to appropriate professional and interpersonal behaviors in this module by:

421 Dispositions Assessment:

- D4 demonstrating professionalism and reflective practice in collaborating with teachers, students, administrators, families, and communities to improve achievement for all students. (9N) (IB)
- D5 participating in ongoing professional development, reading, and research in order to deepen their knowledge and expand their repertoire of skills. (9O) (IB)
- D7 valuing and utilizing the unique identities and backgrounds of all students, families and communities as essential assets in learning environments. (9L, 9N) (IB)
- D9 demonstrating that authentic literacy instruction is the responsibility of all teachers, across all disciplines and grade levels. (2H, 6A) (IB)
- D15 valuing and promoting curiosity, creativity, and life-long learning in students. (IB)

Diversity

Course instructors strive to facilitate an inclusive environment respectful of all members of the class community with appreciation and respect for age, ability, color, creed, cultural background, ethnicity, gender identity or expression, national origin, race, religious affiliation or spiritual affinity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic class, or other status. If you are a student who requires any special considerations, please inform the instructor during the first week of class.

Sequence Four Professionalism and Participation Policies:

Course Evaluation

Grading

All assignments will be graded using the rubrics posted on Sakai and LiveText throughout the semester. Each assignment will be calculated into the total number of points for the course. The number of points earned will be divided by the number of points possible, and a letter grade will be assigned using the scale below.

Assignments and readings are due on the dates listed on the course syllabi unless permission to hand them in late is given. Conflicts with an assignment deadline should be discussed and resolved prior to the assignment's due date. Late work will only be accepted under special circumstances (e.g., family emergency, illness). Please contact your professor in person or by phone or email prior to any given due date to discuss assignment extensions requests. Failure to do so in a timely manner will result in significant grade deductions. Computer or technical problems are not an acceptable excuse for late work.

Unless otherwise noted, all assignments must be typed. Please double-space your work and use 12 point font. Attend closely and carefully to spelling and grammar. If referencing course or other textual materials, please follow American Psychological Association style guidelines (APA – 6th edition). You can access the APA style manual through Loyola University Chicago’s libraries or online at <http://www.apastyle.org>.

Also, as a reminder, all assignments in this course will be submitted via LiveText. Please make certain you have activated your LiveText account if you have not already done so.
