Course Description:
This course will provide you with supervision for your direct counseling experience at your respective placement sites. Reflection on practice and competencies for practice in a multicultural world will be developed through class activities and discussions. The following IDEA objectives will be met:

IDEA Objectives Essential to this course
- Learning to apply course material (to improve thinking, problem solving and decisions)
- Developing specific skills, competencies, and points of view needed by professionals in the field most closely related to this course

IDEA Objective Important to this course
- Developing knowledge and understanding of diverse perspectives, global awareness or other cultures
- Learning to apply knowledge and skills to benefit others or serve the public good

IDEA Course Evaluation Link for Students
Each course you take in the School of Education is evaluated through the IDEA Campus Labs system. We ask that when you receive an email alerting you that the evaluation is available that you promptly complete it. To learn more about IDEA or to access the website directly to complete your course evaluation go to: http://luc.edu/idea/ and click on STUDENT IDEA LOGIN on the left hand side of the page.

Dispositions
All students are assessed on one or more dispositional areas of growth across our programs: Professionalism, Inquiry, and Social Justice. The instructor in your course will identify the dispositions assessed in this course and you can find the rubrics related to these dispositions in LiveText. For those students in non-degree programs, the rubric for dispositions may be available through Sakai, TaskStream or another platform. Disposition data is reviewed by program faculty on a regular basis. This allows faculty to work with students to develop throughout their program and address any issues as they arise.

LiveText
All students, except those who are non-degree, must have access to LiveText to complete the benchmark assessments aligned to the Conceptual Framework Standards and all other accreditation, school-wide and/or program-wide related assessments. You can access more information on LiveText here: LiveText.

Conceptual Framework and Conceptual Framework Standards
Professionalism in the Service of Social Justice: As a professional school counselor, you can be a vehicle for justice. Issues of oppression, privilege, equity, access, opportunity, inclusion, exclusion, and discrimination are present throughout our society. You will be in a unique position to apply the knowledge and skills as a school counselor in an ethical and reflective manner in order to promote the self-development and self-determination of others. This class is designed to help you consider social justice as a critical aspect of your professional work and as such will focus on standards CF2 and CF4. www.luc.edu/education/mission/
Throughout the term you will be asked to consider how cultural issues impact your work with students, families and other educators and you will be tasked with identifying and applying culturally appropriate and ethical interventions in your work.

Technology: In this course, you will use technology to aid you in communicating information and locating resources. It is expected that students will integrate technology with assignments as appropriate. E-mail will provide a convenient way for us to communicate with one another in between class meetings. Each week I will send an email with readings and resources for the following week.

Diversity: Your department and program are committed to issues of diversity including, but not limited to: race, gender, sexual orientation, social class, ethnicity, ability, and status. This class is designed to facilitate your development as a culturally competent professional who is able to work effectively with diverse clients and communities.

Smart Evaluation: Towards the end of the course, students will receive an email from the Office of Institutional Effectiveness as a reminder to provide feedback on the course. Students will receive consistent reminders throughout the period when the evaluation is open, and the reminders will stop once the evaluation is completed.

- The evaluation is completely anonymous. When the results are released, instructors and departments will not be able to tell which student provided the individual feedback.
- Because it is anonymous and the results are not released to faculty or departments until after grades have been submitted, the feedback will not impact a student’s grade.
- The feedback is important so that the instructor can gain insight into how to improve their teaching and the department can learn how best to shape the curriculum.

Center for Student Access and Assistance (CSAA) - Should you encounter an unexpected crisis during the semester (e.g., securing food or housing, addressing mental health concerns, managing a financial crisis and/or dealing with a family emergency, etc.). I strongly encourage you to contact the Office of the Dean of Students by submitting a CARE Referral for yourself or a peer in need of support: www.LUC.edu/csaa. If you are uncomfortable doing so on your own, please know that I can submit a referral on your behalf.

Syllabus Addendum Link: http://luc.edu/education/syllabus-addendum/ This link directs students to statements on essential policies regarding Smart Evaluation, Dispositions, LiveText, academic honesty, accessibility, ethics line reporting and electronic communication policies and guidelines. We ask that you read each policy carefully. This link will also bring you to the full text of our conceptual framework that guides the work of the School of Education – Social Action through Education.

Submission of Assignments: All assignments are your professional responsibility and should reflect your best work. Spell checking, grammar checking and proper formatting are expected for all assignments. All submitted assignments should adhere to APA Style and are due at the beginning of class on the assigned due date. As this is a graduate level course, late work will NOT be accepted and will result in a grade of zero. Exceptions may be made by PRIOR arrangement with the instructor on a case by case basis.

Professional Behavior: Please be sure to turn off cell phones prior to the start of class. Appropriate use of laptops and/or tablets is permitted in class, however should this become a distraction to you, the instructor or your peers, you may be asked to refrain from further use.

Attendance and Participation
As much of the learning in this course occurs during our class discussions, your attendance and participation is essential and represents a significant portion of your final grade. Therefore, you are expected to attend all class meetings and to actively participate in all class discussions both as a listener and a speaker. Becoming an effective counselor requires exploration of personal values, assumptions and worldviews, while simultaneously learning to understand and respect the values, assumptions and worldviews of others. Thus, in this class students will be expected to discuss their personal views and to be respectful of others’ views as well, thereby ensuring a safe space for meaningful learning.

Course Requirements

A. 350 hours of onsite practicum experiences (minimum)

B. 40% of hours spent in direct service with clients (minimum)

C. Completion of course forms (all due on April 20, 2020 and are required in order to receive a final grade):
   1. Hours verification Form
   2. Supervisor Evaluation Form
   3. Site Evaluation Form (this will come from Dr Gonzalez)

D. Reflection Journals – A total of five journal entries will be due this term. Each should be a one to two (1-2) page typed journal/ professional experience reflection will be due at the beginning of class on the following dates: 1/27, 2/3, 2/10, 2/24* & 3/9

Reflective thought is a highly valued skill with the field of counseling. A reflective practitioner will analyze situations, set goals, plan and monitor actions and evaluate results. Journal writing is one effective way to develop reflective practice. To this end, you will be required to submit a weekly journal that reflects on your experience at your site and/or in this class. Primarily I will be looking for you to think and write about your reactions and insights to the experiences you will be having during this semester. New this semester will be assigned journal topics. I will provide more topics than are required, so you will maintain some element of choice. You are free to select topics in any order, but you may not write on the same topic more than once. These journal responses will involve more directed thinking on your behalf and may take longer to complete than last semester. Please see journal topic list attached.

Journal #4, the College Info Sheet - due on February 24*, 2020. You will need to research one college to present to the class. Again, this assignment is intended to expand your scope of knowledge. You will need to provide the following details about your selected college: location, cost, enrollment, admission requirements, special programs, institutional scholarships, "cool" facts – if you can find any, areas of strength/recognition. Be sure to provide a copy of your Info sheet for each of your classmates as well. The journals will be graded on a 4-point scale. A “4” indicates a well-constructed, thoughtful, and insightful journal; a “3” indicates an acceptable journal which could have benefited from more depth of thought and/or insight; a “2” indicates a mere summary of the events without proper analysis or application and a “1” indicates an unacceptable entry.

E. Group Counseling Activity – Due on 3/23 & 3/30, topics to be assigned on first-come, first-served basis.

The purpose of this activity is to continue to build your bank of resources and to provide you with an opportunity to plan and hopefully facilitate a psycho-educational group. For this assignment you will need to select a topic to create a psychoeducational group lesson including an activity. Obviously psycho-educational groups are typically 6 -8 or more weeks long, however for this assignment you will only need to provide the lesson and activity for one day. The fun part will be in leading your classmates through your activity! You will be asked to provide a one page handout to your classmates which must contain:

1. The type of group (i.e., Anger Management group) and the week you are likely to use this activity
2. Target Population
3. The objective of your selected activity.
4. Counseling Standards Addressed – list the ISBE/ACA standards addressed by this activity
5. Summary – list the steps of the activity include any discussion questions and/or reflection prompts

F. Final Project: due dates, 4/6 & 4/13 to be assigned on first-come, first-served basis.

To compliment your experience in this class you will be required to design, create and present a final project that meets the following criteria:

1. Relevant - to the field of school counseling (at any grade level) and more specifically to either the needs of your school setting and/or to your own professional development
2. Adaptable - to both a variety of school settings and to the differing styles of colleagues in the field
3. Original - this must be your own work, ideas from other people and sources may be integrated, but the goal is for you to create something new and unique
4. Goal Oriented – this project may address either academic or therapeutic goals, just be clear about your goals
5. Researched – along with your project you will need to include a reference to an empirical article that relates to your broad topic.

Some project ideas include: career day, drug prevention programs, college fair, a service-learning fair, job shadow day, group counseling curriculum, college application workshops for seniors, etc. Talk to your site supervisor and see if together you can brainstorm a project that would benefit both you and your site. Ideally you will implement this project at your site so that you also obtain experience with whatever you create; the object is not to create excess work, but rather to create something meaningful.

Your presentation should be a professional and thorough explanation of your experiences with your program ranging from its inception to its implementation and reflection on its effectiveness. You should include information on your site’s need for your program, target clientele, program description, schedule of activities, challenges you encountered, outcomes and any other relevant information (i.e., memos to staff, reminders, mistakes to avoid etc). This presentation will be in PowerPoint format and should include a list of relevant resources. You will be required to share your PowerPoint presentation with your classmates (so you may want to consider using Google docs version).

NOTE: You will be required to submit a project proposal by Feb. 24, 2020. This proposal should:

1. Identify the nature of your project
2. The goals it is intended to meet and the need it fills either for your professional growth and development or for your school site

The proposal does not need to be lengthy, a paragraph or two ought to suffice; you will need the rest of the semester to more thoroughly develop your ideas, the proposal is just declaring your intentions.
G. Self-evaluation and counseling philosophy paper – Due April 13, 2020. This paper should not exceed 6 pages.

The purpose of this paper is to provide a reflection and interpretation of the personal and professional significance of your internship experience. In addition to reflecting on your internship, you will be expected to articulate your professional counseling philosophy. This is meant to help you to articulate your vision of the role of the school counselor and how you see yourself in this role. Please be sure to address the ways in which you plan to practice self care and how your vision of self care has evolved over the year. Some thoughts to assist your reflection and personal philosophies: Consider areas for your continued professional growth, consider your ability to give and receive feedback, to take initiative and to be data driven, consider strengths you have developed and strengths you see as critical to the job, think about your weaknesses and ways in which you have improved in these areas and consider the goals you set at the end of the first semester and your progress toward these goals. Finally, you may also want to include a brief reflection on your assessment of your site, your supervisor, this course and your overall experience this year.

Grading

Your grade for this course will be based on your ethical, responsible performance as a counselor-in-training. You must meet the stated requirements, come prepared for supervision, be open to feedback and guidance from your supervisors, and demonstrate appropriate skills. Failure to fulfill the stated requirements and/or any ethical violations may result in point reductions or a reassessment of your standing in the program. Thus, you are highly encouraged to speak with the instructor if you anticipate problems in the aforementioned areas. Examples of foreseeable concerns include low client attendance, excessive class absences, or on-site conflicts with supervisors or colleagues. In the event that you are unable to meet the direct client contact requirements for this course, you will be given a grade of “I” which will be changed when this requirement is met. All graded assignments are due at the beginning of class on the scheduled date. All written assignments should be typed in APA format. If you are absent, the assignment should be emailed to the instructor on or before the due date. No late work will be accepted without prior instructor approval.

Journal Topic Selection List

➢ Describe your greatest challenge to date. What was it? How did you handle it? What do you wish you had done? What would you do differently in the future?

➢ Describe your greatest disappointment to date. What happened? Did you see it coming? What could you have done differently?

➢ Describe the role of the school counselor at your site. What are the expectations? How are the counselors viewed by the administration? By the staff? By the students? How do you feel about the way the counselors are viewed? What if anything could be done to change and/or improve the perception?

➢ Describe your greatest achievement to date. What was it? What do you think made this so successful?

➢ Describe a student and/or situation that has touched/moved you in some way. Why do you think this affected you so? In what ways (if any) does this help to get you in touch with your own issue(s)?

➢ Describe what fears still get in your way. What can you do to stop this from happening? What strategies have you tried, or plan to try?

➢ Describe how you can make “negative contacts” with kids meaningful. (for “negative contact” think about when you need to see a student who is failing multiple classes or some similar situation)

➢ Describe a mistake you made and the learning that resulted from the mistake.

➢ Describe the ways in which you have integrated yourself into the school faculty and culture at your site. Why have you chosen to integrate yourself? Based on your experiences this year, what will you do in the future – once you are hired to work at a school?

➢ Describe your view on school politics and how it impacts both you and the counseling department at your site. Is there something that you or someone else should be doing? Explain.

➢ Compare and contrast your day-to-day experiences as a school counselor with your training and experience in the school counseling program at Loyola. What did you feel most prepared for? What were you least prepared for?

➢ Describe your relationship with your on site supervisor. What is his/her strength? Weakness? What more would you like from him/her? What can you offer to him/her? What is the most important thing you have learned from your supervisor?

➢ Write a letter of advice to a future practicum student. What should this student know? Do? Avoid?
