

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

Make Loyola home

Congratulations on your acceptance to Loyola University Chicago!

You made it through the application process, and now it's time for the fun part. Apply for housing and become part of our vibrant campus community! Residence halls are where you'll meet new friends, make fond memories, and survive late-night study sessions. Best of all, you'll be steps away from where you'll go to class and attend campus events.

Make the most of your Loyola experience.

Research shows that students who live on campus are more involved in student activities and have a higher GPA.

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS
FOR LOYOLA STUDENTS

Loyola students gather in the East Quad to watch a movie.

Convenience.

Getting in and around campus is safe and hassle-free.

Our intercampus shuttle transports you between the Lake Shore and Water Tower campuses.

Our 8-RIDE vans deliver you to surrounding off-campus housing and community areas as late as 2:30 a.m. on weeknights and 4 a.m. on weekends.

U-Pass gives you unlimited access to Chicago Transit Authority buses and trains.

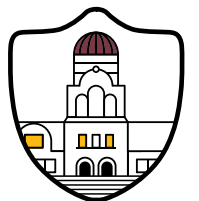

Safety.

At Loyola, you'll benefit from a secure campus, protected by the Department of Campus Safety.

Loyola's Campus Safety patrols campus and maintains strong relations with our neighbors and surrounding community.

All first-year residence hall entrances feature a security desk that is staffed 24 hours a day.

Residence halls are securely locked with keycard access.

Submit your housing application.

- Secure your spot in the class
Submit your deposit by May 1 through your student portal: LUC.edu/studentportal.
- Complete your housing contract
Once you deposit, you'll have access to the housing application. The priority deadline is May 1. For more information, please visit your student portal.
- Want to commute from home?
We offer a non-residential option for students living at home with parent(s)/legal guardian(s). Students must complete the exemption request form and be approved by the Office of Residence Life to commute. Learn more at LUC.edu/residency.

Loyola University Chicago admits students without regard to their race, color, sex, age, national or ethnic origin, religion, sexual orientation, ancestry, military discharge or status, marital status, parental status, or any other protected status. Otherwise qualified persons are not subject to discrimination on the basis of disability.

The Illinois Public Act 102-0083 requires all institutions of higher education to designate a staff member as the Housing and Opportunities that are Useful for Students' Excellence (HOUSE) liaison to assist students who are experiencing homelessness and students in care. At Loyola University Chicago, the HOUSE Liaisons are staffed within the Office of the Dean of Students. Students experiencing housing insecurity/homelessness or navigating being a student in care may contact the Office of the Dean of Students by submitting a CARE Referral at luc.edu/CURA. You can also reach the office at 773.508.8840 or by sending an email to deanofstudents@luc.edu.

Information in this brochure is correct as of January 2025.
