

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

STILL SEARCHING FOR THE PERFECT MATCH?

Beyond the all the glossy brochures and impressive rankings, the college search is a journey of self-discovery. You're looking for a community that reflects who you are and supports who you're becoming.

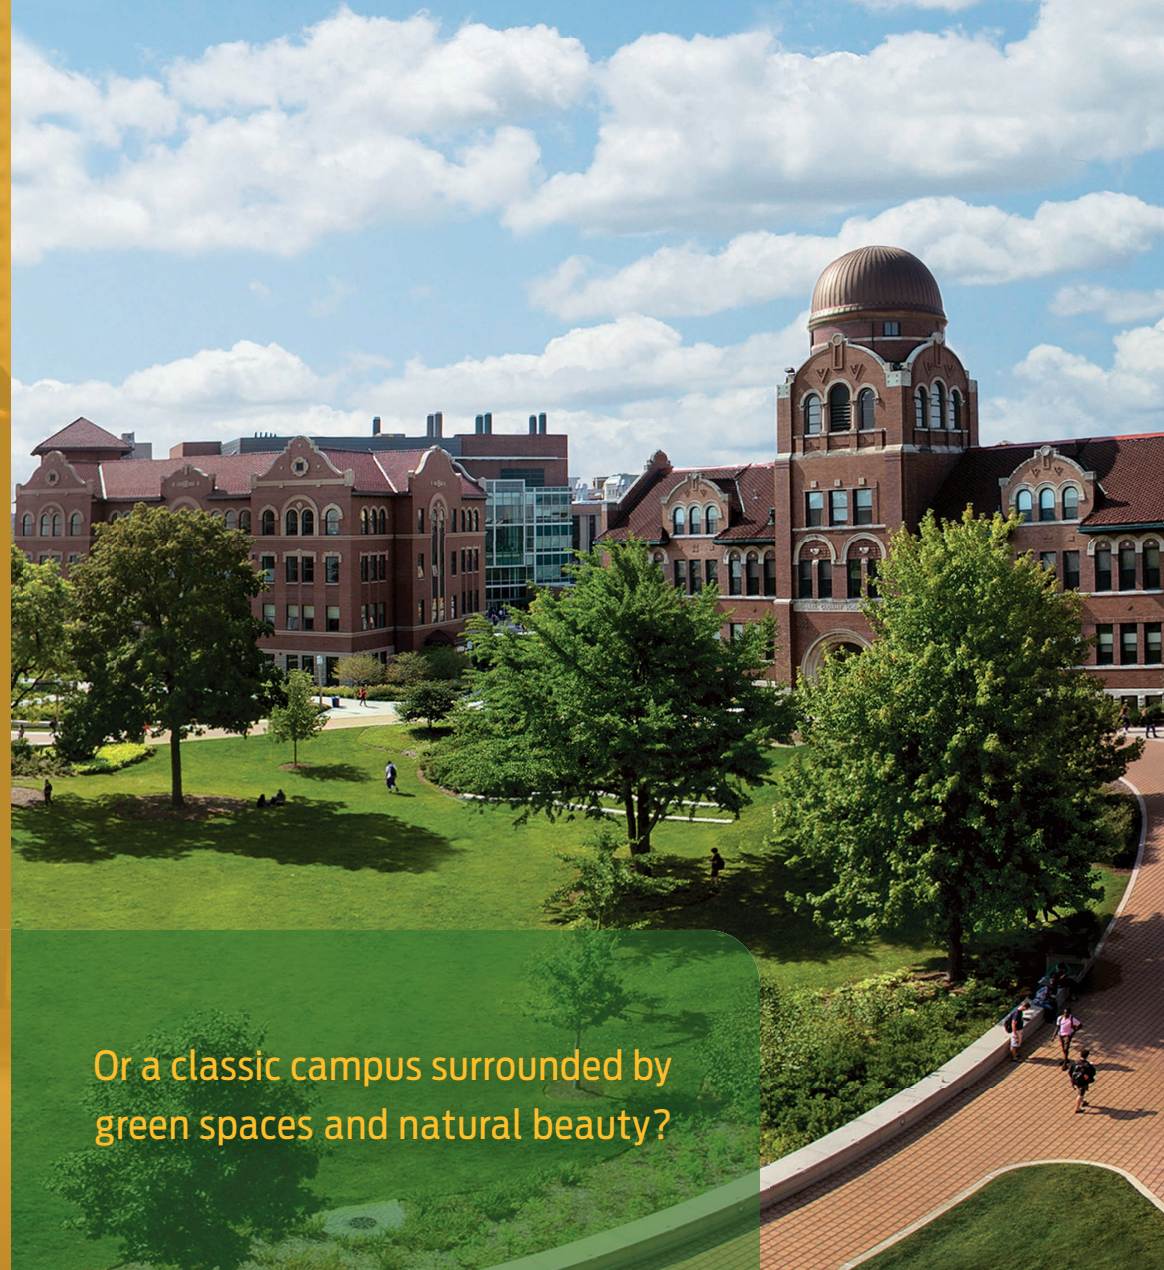

Let's see if you'll find that here at Loyola.

Do you prefer a modern campus in the middle of a lively city?

THIS MAY BE THE PLACE WHERE YOU BELONG.

Or a classic campus surrounded by green spaces and natural beauty?

How do you want to learn?

When it comes to academics, here are the three things you can count on:

- 1 PERSONALIZED SUPPORT
A 13:1 student-faculty ratio ensures you'll get all the support you need in pursuit of your academic goals.
- 2 WELL-ROUNDED EDUCATION
Through the Core Curriculum, you'll get to explore fields outside your chosen major and learn to see things from a variety of perspectives.
- 3 ENGAGED LEARNING
Learning by doing is a central part of the Loyola experience. With guidance from faculty, you'll participate in one of five kinds of engaged learning: service, academic internship, field work, research, or public performance.

ALL OF CHICAGO IS YOUR CLASSROOM

Chicago isn't just our backdrop—it's part of your journey. Loyola has built more than 850 partnerships across the city to help you gain real-world experience. Intern in a downtown skyscraper, volunteer with a cause you care about, or work alongside teachers in local schools. However you get involved, you'll be part of something bigger.

The Loyola shuttle takes you between both campuses in under 30 minutes. You'll also get a U-PASS that provides access to unlimited rides on public buses and trains traveling anywhere around the city.

Where do you want to travel?

Chicago is a great city, but there's a whole world out there for you to see.

At Loyola, you'll get the chance to explore new countries and immerse yourself in different languages, cultures, and worldviews. We have around 200 study abroad programs in over 50 different countries.
