

QUINLAN SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Are you drawn to solving problems and being a leader? Are you looking for an in-demand and versatile degree? Are you excited to use your skills to make a positive difference in the world? If so, the Quinlan School of Business can help you reach your goals.

At the Quinlan School of Business, we offer:

- REPUTATION For the last decade, we've ranked as the #1 undergraduate business program in Chicago by U.S. News & World Report. We also received nine national top-25 subject rankings in U.S. News in the last five years, including programs in accounting, marketing, and information systems.
- CAREER SUCCESS Within six months of graduation, more than 95% of our undergraduates are working full-time or continuing their education, often with a Quinlan MBA or specialized business master's degree. Companies that hire from us include Amazon, Google, Goldman Sachs, Big Four+ accounting firms, Publicis Groupe, and Abbott. Median salaries of recent graduates exceed $65,000, with some receiving offers over $100,000.
- LEARN THROUGH EXPERIENCE In your courses, you'll work with real-world clients to analyze financial statements, create data visualizations, develop advertising campaigns, and run management simulations. The work continues outside of class, too. Our students manage more than $1 million of Loyola's endowment through the Rambler Investment Fund.
- HONORS OPPORTUNITIES High achieving applicants are invited to be a part of the Quinlan Honors Program, a transformational experience. The program includes unique travel opportunities, a collaborative senior capstone project, and learning how business strategies can be used to solve social problems.
- INTERNSHIPS ALL YEAR Choosing Chicago for college means access to world-class business internships year-round. You have the option to earn course credit while completing relevant internships. You'll find internships by networking with alumni through Q Mentors, in-class guest speakers, Loyola Career Services, and on LoyolaLinked, a platform to connect with mentors and find support on your career journey.
