

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

Are you driven by a desire to create positive change in society? Earning a BSW will provide you with the foundational skills to advocate for individuals, families, and communities. Consider a career in social work and become a change agent on the path to creating a more just and humane world.

At the School of Social Work, we offer:

- ACCELERATED MASTER'S Want to expand on your BSW? As a Loyola student, you can get both a bachelor's and a master's in only five years through an accelerated program. You'll be able to fast-track your way to the MSW or earn an additional MA in International Affairs.
- EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING Practical experience is built into the curriculum. We've partnered with more than 1,500 agencies to connect you with hands-on internships at organizations making a real difference. You'll also have the opportunity to practice your skills in our brand new simulation lab, or engage in research as an undergrad through the School of Social Work's Research and Innovation Lab.
- CAREER DEVELOPMENT The Career Services team facilitates internships, employment opportunities, resume workshops, and career fairs, including an annual Social Work Networking and Career Fair. You'll have access to the university-wide job portal through Handshake, and a connection to a network of 4,000+ alumni through LoyolaLinked.
- JOURNAL PUBLICATION As a student at the School of Social Work, you'll have the chance to publish your work in Praxis, one of the only student-published social work journals in the country. Plus, you'll be able to join the journal's editorial board, where you can gain valuable professional skills.
- CENTERS AND INSTITUTES We're home to many centers and institutes that support social work research and advocacy across a range of disciplines. This means you'll be able to participate in projects that address real-world problems. Explore these centers here: LUC.edu/sswcenters
