GENERAL INFORMATION for Engaged Learning Partners/Employers

Dear Employer/Volunteer Supervisor:

The student who has presented you with this form is enrolled in one or more classes at Loyola University Chicago that require him/her to engage with the broader community as part of his/her academic coursework. It is our intention that our students not only LEARN from this experience, but also make a real and valuable contribution to your organization's work and mission.

As an employer/volunteer supervisor of Loyola experiential learning students, you have the right to:

- Require students to fulfill ALL the requirements and expectations of non-student interns/volunteers, including minimum commitments that exceed those required by the students' classes.
- Terminate the internship/volunteer position of any Loyola student whose inadequate performance of his/her role would constitute a threat to the student, the staff, or the clients of the experience provider.
- Maintain insurance appropriate to operations.
- Hold Loyola University Chicago harmless from any liability for loss or damage arising from the acts or omissions of the employer/volunteer supervisor.
- Refuse to document/approve student hours that are incomplete or conducted in an inappropriate or unprofessional manner.
- Contact students' course instructors and/or the Center for Engaged Learning staff at any time to clarify students' roles, expectations, and learning outcomes in connection with this experience.

As a co-educator of Loyola experiential learning students, we ask that you:

- Ensure the focus of opportunities provided is for educational purposes and intends to benefit the student(s);
- Establish clear boundaries for students' roles, duties, and schedule, and provide them with all necessary training and supervision required to complete their assigned responsibilities.
- Aid students in recognizing and managing risks associated with performance of their duties and regard the safety of Loyola students as a priority equal to that of your employees/clients.
- Place students in roles that are complementary to their course's stated learning outcomes, insofar as possible without compromising your organization's priorities.
- Be available to discuss problems or concerns that may arise during the students' performance of their assigned duties;
- Communicate any concerns with students' performance to course instructors and/or the Center for Engaged Learning staff in a timely, clear, and appropriate manner.

GENERAL INFORMATION for Engaged Learning Course Instructors

Dear Course Instructor:

Thank you for supporting this student in your experiential learning (i.e. service-learning or academic internship) class.

Please use the information recorded on the previous page to contact this student’s site supervisor in case of questions or concerns about his/her volunteer or internship experience. This information should also be available via your class roster in the Faculty Center in LOCUS.

Upon receipt of this form, please VERIFY that student-entered site and supervisor information in LOCUS is complete and correct. Once you have reviewed the student’s information, please click the box next to “Instructor Approval” to electronically sign off on the student’s engaged learning commitment in connection with your class. This approval is essential for risk management and documentation purposes, and we appreciate your cooperation.

As the course instructor of an experiential learning class at Loyola University Chicago, you agree to:

- Clearly communicate the expected learning outcomes of students’ community-based work;
- Verify the details of students’ class-related community-based commitments in LOCUS;
- Provide reflection opportunities and assignments to help your students relate their community-based learning to other course content;
- Communicate with your students regarding their community-based learning on an on-going basis;
- Communicate as needed with site supervisor(s) regarding students’ fulfillment of their community-based commitments;
- Keep in contact with Center for Engaged Learning, Teaching & Scholarship staff to discuss any problems or issues that may arise regarding students’ community-based work.
