Service to the Wider Profession

- Curriculum Consultant, Social Science 2.0, review and revision of the K-12 social science curriculum of the Chicago Public Schools, 2008 – 2009.
- Evaluation Consultant, American Dreams Project, Maine Township High School District Teaching of American History Grant funded by the U.S. Department of Education, 2008 – 2011.
- Academic Co-Director, American History Matters Collaborative, a U.S. Department of Education funded project to improve the teaching of American history in high-need Chicago public high schools in partnership with the Chicago Metro History Education Center. I designed and implemented the pedagogical program during the summer and throughout the school year, 2007 – 2010.
- Advisory Board Member, Illinois Civic Mission Coalition, a grant effort of the Chicago Constitutional Rights Foundation assisting schools in preparing students to participate in their communities, become engaged politically, and develop moral and civic virtues, 2004 – 2009.
- Curriculum Consultant, worked with the Center for Catholic School Effectiveness to conduct a social studies curriculum review of Leo High School, 2008.
- Lead History Education Specialist, Chicago History Advanced Placement Project, a U.S. Department of Education funded project to improve the teaching of Advanced Placement American history in the Chicago Public Schools in partnership with the Newberry Library, the Chicago Constitutional Rights Foundation and the Chicago History Museum. I worked with AP US History teachers to identify essential content and develop effective curriculum units as a part of this project, 2006 – 2007.
- Advisory Board Member, From the Crossroads: Great Chicago Stories, a grant effort of the Chicago History Museum and funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities. This project provided resources and instructional approaches to enrich the exploration of local, regional, and national history through the lens of Chicago. I also facilitated workshops on document-based teaching for teachers in July 2005 and July 2006. The materials from this project supported teachers in meeting local and national standards, for elementary, middle, and high school classes, 2005 – 2007.
- Evaluator, Chicago 1919, a proposal for a web-based curricular resource focused on an in-depth examination of events in Chicago in 1919 and their relationship to the nation and world. This evaluation was conducted for the Chicago Metro History Education Center and focused on the pedagogical design and site accessibility of the project, 2004.
- Advisory Board Member, Chicago Public Schools Social Science Advisory Committee, a review and revision of the K-12 social science curriculum of the Chicago Public Schools, 2004.
- Evaluator, Chicago History Project, a U.S. Department of Education funded project to improve the teaching of American history in the Chicago Public Schools in partnership with the Newberry Library, the Chicago Constitutional Rights Foundation and the Chicago Historical Society, 2002 – 2006.
- Member, Advisory Committee, Urban Experience in Chicago: Hull-House and Its Neighborhoods, 1889-1963, 2002.
- Member, Conference Planning Committee, Council for American Studies Education, “Confronting the Issue of Race in the American Studies Curriculum and Classroom”, Chicago, IL, 2000 – 2001.
