Your records at the U.S. Department of Education indicate you have had a federally funded educational loan discharged because of total and permanent disability. Before we can process your application, we must determine if you are eligible to borrow a new educational loan. Please complete Section 1 or Section 2.

Section 1:

The above named student has had a prior federally funded educational loan cancelled because of total and permanent disability. I (the student) seek financial aid but do not wish to borrow a federally funded educational loan.

Sign here only if you DO NOT wish to obtain a new student loan:

Section 2:

The above named student has had a prior federally funded educational loan cancelled because of total and permanent disability. The student is now seeking to obtain a new federally funded educational loan. To meet the requirements to qualify for a new loan, I (the student) must:

- a. Provide a signed physician's statement that the student may now engage in "substantial gainful activity."
- b. Acknowledge that the new loan may not be discharged because of the same disability unless the disabling condition substantially deteriorates.

I have attached the required physician's statement, AND

I hereby acknowledge that the new loan I am seeking may not be discharged due to the same disability unless the disabling condition substantially deteriorates.
