FIRST YEAR INFORMATION

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

☐ FYSA Walk-in Advising
It’s registration week! First and Second Year Advising will offer walk-in advising from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. from November 7-11 in Sullivan 250. Stop in to see the first available advisor for assistance with registration. We also will host registration open house workshops on Tuesday and Wednesday from 1-4 p.m. in Sullivan 201.

☐ UPSCOMING EVENTS

☐ Hunger Week 2011
Events throughout the week, November 6 - 12
Hunger week is an annual series of education, awareness and fundraising events on campus. Through campus-wide partnerships, the entire Loyola community and our neighbors strive to “cultivate compassion in the community by education and raising funds as we strive to stand in global solidarity with those who hunger.” Check out the week of events at www.luc.edu/hungerweek.

☐ Holocaust Survivor on Kristallnacht
Wednesday, November 9, 2011 from 5-7 p.m., Regis Multipurpose Room
Her Mr. Isreal Starck’s story of courage and faith as he recounts his experience as a teenager in Hungary when he was taken to the first of four concentration camps, including Auschwitz and Matthausen before his liberation.

☐ Being R.E.A.L. (Core Workshop)
Thursday, November 10, 2011 from 7-8:30 p.m., Quinlan LSB 312
Being R.E.A.L. (Relational, Ethical, Authentic Leaders) (Matthew Jake Jacobson, Campus Ministry) - Loyola University's Ignation values provide the context for this workshop, in the sense that we are called to care for the whole person and to prepare students to be men and women for others. By exploring what it means to be REAL, students will reflect on their personal values as they relate to leadership, discuss ethical approaches to leadership, and consider leadership as a collaborative, inclusive process.

☐ Coming Up: Leadership Week 2011
Events November 13-18
Take part in a variety of events aimed at exploring leadership topics and opportunities across campus and even throughout the city! Each day there will be a dedicated leadership event open to all Loyola students—there is sure to be great company, interesting conversation, and even free food! www.luc.edu/leadership

☐ Coming Up: Disability Awareness Week 2011
Events November 14-19
This week features a number of events highlighting individuals with disabilities—including a social justice dinner dialogue, open mic night, resource fair, documentary, musical performance and panel discussions. Look for more information next week!

TIP OF THE WEEK

As the leaves fall slowly on the quad and Lake Michigan rues the passing of fall with waves berating the large imported rocks which make up the shore, Registration week is upon us! The naughty dealer of fate (LOCUS) has dealt each of us registration appointments that vary by mere hand-fulls of minutes and are forever set in stone. The mad rush that will happen this week as clocks tick to the starting line is reason for preparation on the part of all students. I would recommend identifying reserve and secondary courses to ensure that if a nasty senior swipes the last seat in a coveted Core class, you have a back-up. Know which classes you must find spots in and which can be taken later on during your time at Loyola. Finally, be on the lookout for changes in the weeks following registration in case of the fortunate event that another student changes her mind and opens a seat in your desired class.
