The Gannon Center Award for Undergraduate Women’s Leadership

The Gannon Center for Women and Leadership, in conjunction with the Gannon Scholars Leadership Program, is pleased to announce the seventh annual Undergraduate Women’s Leadership Award.

This award recognizes women undergraduate students who exemplify Loyola’s Jesuit values and the Gannon Center’s mission of fostering a more just world through leadership, research, and service.

Each year the Gannon Center selects one recipient for the Undergraduate Women’s Leadership Award. The recipient is chosen from a pool of nominations submitted by faculty, staff, and students and is additionally based on an application submitted by the nominee.

The Award recipient will be announced at a reception on the evening of March 16, 2020. The recipient will receive a prize of $500.

Award Criteria & Selection Process

Award Details

- The award is open to any currently enrolled woman-identified undergraduate student.
- Nominees must first be nominated by a Loyola faculty or staff member or current Loyola undergraduate or graduate student.
- After a nomination is received, the nominee will be notified and asked to submit a résumé and a brief reflection on how they contribute to a more just world.
- Nominees must have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or above.
- Nominees will be screened by Office of Student Conduct & Conflict Resolution.
- A student may not win the award more than once but may be nominated in multiple years.
- All nominees will be invited and encouraged to attend the reception on March 16, 2020.

Nominations

- All Nomination Forms are due via email to shallett@luc.edu by December 16, 2019.
- Nominated students will be contacted via email to complete the Nominee Application Form and return it via email to shallett@luc.edu by January 24, 2020.
- Nominations and applications will be reviewed by the Gannon Center Director, Gabrielle Buckley, along with a committee of faculty, staff, and student representatives.
The Gannon Center Award for Undergraduate Women’s Leadership

Nomination Form

The Gannon Center for Women and Leadership, in conjunction with the Gannon Scholars Leadership Program, is pleased to announce the seventh annual Undergraduate Women’s Leadership Award. This award recognizes women-identified undergraduate students who exemplify Loyola’s Jesuit values and the Gannon Center’s mission of fostering a more just world through leadership, research, and service.

This nomination form is due to shallett@luc.edu by December 16, 2019. Please also notify the nominee of your nomination.

Nominator Name:
Nominator Position:
Nominator Email:
Student Nominee Name:
Student Nominee Email:

How long and in what capacity have you known the nominee?

Describe how this student’s leadership, research, and service have contributed to fostering a more just world (300 word limit):
The Gannon Center Award for Undergraduate Women’s Leadership

Nominee Application Form

The Gannon Center for Women and Leadership, in conjunction with the Gannon Scholars Leadership Program, is pleased to announce the seventh annual Undergraduate Women’s Leadership Award. This award recognizes women-identified undergraduate students who exemplify Loyola’s Jesuit values and the Gannon Center’s mission of fostering a more just world through leadership, research, and service.

This application form is due to shallett@luc.edu by January 24, 2020.

Name:

Email:

Graduation Year:

Major(s)/Minor(s):

Cumulative GPA:

Please include an updated résumé or CV along with your essay reflection.

Describe how you contribute to fostering a more just world through your leadership, research, and service (500 word limit):