FINANCIAL AID OPPORTUNITIES

THROUGH LOYOLA'S FINANCIAL AID OFFICE

Visit LUC.edu/finaid to learn more about your financial aid options, including loans and student employment. Your first step in the process is to fill out the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov. We encourage you to submit your FAFSA at least 6–8 weeks before the start of your planned entry term. Loyola's federal school code is 001710.

Please note that international students are not eligible for federal financial aid.

To learn more about the financial aid process or if you have any questions about Financial Aid, contact the Financial Aid Office at 773.508.7704 or lufinaid@luc.edu. Or visit LUC.edu/finaid.

THROUGH THE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK

For the best consideration, apply by the scholarship priority deadline. Applicants are automatically considered for merit scholarships by answering 'yes' to the merit award question on the application.

The School of Social Work has limited funds available for scholarships and graduate assistant opportunities. Financial aid from Loyola's Financial Aid Office will not impact your ability to apply for financial aid through the School of Social Work, but may be adjusted based on those awards. The School of Social Work also offers a limited number of graduate assistant positions for admitted students. Information on applying for these positions are posted throughout the year.

For questions or assistance regarding scholarships through the School of Social Work, contact us at 312.915.7707.
