

MJ IN COMPLIANCE AND ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

ONLINE COMPLIANCE AND ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

Loyola University Chicago's School of Law offers the Master of Jurisprudence (MJ) degree for non-attorney professionals who wish to focus their career on compliance and risk management. This graduate-level degree helps professionals understand the legal issues they may encounter in their respective fields of work.

The MJ in Compliance and Enterprise Risk Management provides in-depth, practical skills training in compliance with various regulatory requirements, including the securities laws, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and privacy and information security. Introductory courses will expose you to issues relating to business structures, ethical business conduct policies, legal research, and legal writing. Advanced courses will allow you to gain technical expertise in the laws and regulations that affect business, so that you may work more effectively with legal counsel, regulators, and clients.

PROGRAM DETAILS

The MJ in Compliance and Enterprise Risk Management offers a specialized curriculum in legal research and writing, compliance, business organizations, financial regulations, contract drafting, and business transactions. Although an MJ degree is designed to enhance career opportunities, it does not prepare students for the bar examination or the practice of law.

LENGTH OF PROGRAM: The MJ in Compliance and Enterprise Risk Management is a part-time, online program and requires the completion of 24 credit hours, including a thesis project. The program offers start times in the fall, spring, and summer of each year.

ONLINE MJ IN COMPLIANCE AND ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT

The MJ in Compliance and Enterprise Risk Management is a degree that allows business professionals to increase their knowledge of the law and better understand the interplay between business practices and legal concepts in order to enhance or advance their careers.

The program is designed for any business professional with at least 2 years of experience who is interested in learning about the laws and regulations that govern various industries and business entities.

While the majority of our graduates use the knowledge gained in our program to enhance their current position, many have gone on to key positions in corporate compliance, financial regulation, and other non-attorney legal professional positions.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- A completed online application available at gpem.LUC.edu/apply
- Official transcripts of all undergraduate and any graduate work; transcripts must verify completion of a bachelor's degree
- One optional letter of recommendation
- A one- to two-page statement of purpose detailing an interest in pursuing this degree and the respective concentration area
- A resume outlining work experience, education, professional or academic achievements, or any additional information relevant to support the application

The following documents are required, in addition to those listed above, for those who may fall into these categories:

- Either an official TOEFL or IELTS score report for international applicants. This requirement is waived for those who have completed a four-year bachelor's or a master's degree program in the U.S. For those with a non-U.S. bachelor's degree, the U.S. master's degree must be conferred to waive the requirement. The language test is also waived for those who are from, or who have completed a bachelor's or master's degree at a recognized institution in, Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, or the United Kingdom, where the language of instruction is English.
- International applicants or U.S. residents who completed school abroad are required to submit non-U.S. transcripts to one of the following: Educational Perspectives (edperspective.org), Educational Credential Evaluators (ece.org), or the Law School Admission Council (lsac.org) for evaluation of credentials. The general evaluation report must show that an applicant's non-U.S. education is equivalent to a U.S. bachelor's degree to be considered for admission.
