

LEADING INCLUSIVE CATHOLIC SCHOOLS CERTIFICATE

The Leading Inclusive Catholic Schools certificate program builds both the knowledge and experiential base of Catholic school principals and teacher leaders to develop school-wide systems, structures, and practices to support all learners. The program will increase your knowledge base and professional preparation in the areas of exceptionality, special education law and procedure, and interventions/accommodations.

PROGRAM STRUCTURE This certificate program comprises four courses. Students take one course per semester online. Students will complete these four courses in one calendar year.

PROGRAM DISTINCTIONS The National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), now the Council for Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), accredits the School of Education. Students who teach in a Catholic school are eligible for Loyola's mission tuition discount. Other scholarships may be available. All four courses are online.

FINANCIAL AID Begin the financial aid process by completing your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov. Learn more about the financial aid process at LUC.edu/education/financialaid.

APPLICATION INFORMATION This program is open to Catholic school principals and teacher leaders with the following:

- Illinois Professional Educator License (with either teacher or principal endorsement) or comparable credentials from another state
- Two years of leadership experience in a Catholic school
