

Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP), Adult Gerontology Acute Care Clinical Nurse Specialist (AGACCNS)

The DNP AGACCNS track will prepare you to develop, deliver, and evaluate evidence-based care of adults in an acute care setting at the highest level of nursing practice. You'll build the advanced skills and knowledge to achieve the best possible patient outcomes in complex and acute settings.

Eligibility

BSN or MSN degree ✓

An Illinois RN license, ALCS, and CCRN certification ✓

2,000 hours of recent clinical practice experience prior to starting program practicums ✓

Learn more
LUC.edu/nursing

Courses and hands-on experience

3-5 years

Completion time, full- or part-time

Hybrid format

Learning how to manage integrate the best practices into the development, delivery, and evaluation of care for adult and gerontologic patients in an acute care setting ✓

Customized acute care clinical placements with expert practitioners ✓

Managing health and illness for adults in increasingly complex acute and critical care settings ✓

Courses in population health, leadership, and translating evidence into practice ✓

Collaborating with inter-professional teams in addressing patient care issues ✓

Grow your expertise

After you graduate

Eligibility for the certification exam

Obtain APRN license

Scan me for more information

Contact us: gpem@luc.edu or 312.915.7900

Loyola University Chicago is an equal opportunity educator/employer.
Read our full non-discrimination policy at <https://www.LUC.edu/nondiscrimination.shtml>.

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives