

Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP), Family Nurse Practitioner with Emergency Specialty Track (FNP-ENP)

The DNP, FNP-ENP track will prepare you to practice at the highest level in nursing in a variety of primary care and emergency care settings. You'll develop the advanced skills and knowledge to assess, diagnose, and treat patients across the lifespan. There is a growing demand for specialty qualified FNPs who are prepared to work within the Emergency Nurse Practitioner (ENP) scope of practice. This is the only program of its kind in the Chicago area.

Eligibility

- BSN or MSN degree ✓
- An Illinois RN license ✓
- Emergency department experience ✓

Learn more
LUC.edu/nursing

3-5 years

Completion time, full- or part-time

Hybrid format

Courses and hands-on experience

Grow your expertise

- Learning how to manage patients across the lifespan in primary care, urgent care, and emergency care settings ✓
- Family, adult, pediatric, and emergency clinical placements with expert preceptors ✓
- Procedure training in intubation, sonogram use, and other ED specialty procedures and diagnostics ✓
- Immersion and simulation days with classmates and faculty ✓
- Courses in population health, leadership, and translating evidence into practice ✓
- DNP project development and implementation ✓

Eligibility for the FNP and ENP board certification exam

After you graduate

Obtain APRN license

Secure a job in the demanding FNP market and set yourself apart with the ENP specialty

Scan me for more information

Contact us: gpem@luc.edu or 312.915.7900

Loyola University Chicago is an equal opportunity educator/employer.
Read our full non-discrimination policy at <https://www.LUC.edu/nondiscrimination.shtml>.

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives