WHAT MAKES US STAND OUT?

DISTINGUISHED FACULTY

Learn from Loyola's distinguished faculty who are avidly publishing and have received awards from the American Educational Research Association, American Association of School Administrators, and more.

BEING ACCREDITED

The School of Education is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP).

GLOBAL LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

Integrate a global perspective into your degree by having the flexibility to study in Rome or Ho Chi Minh City. Loyola hosts two academic centers highlighting The School of Education's commitment to diversity.

DUAL DEGREE PROGRAMS

The School of Education's dual degree programs make it possible to earn two degrees simultaneously, and at a lower cost than if pursued independently.

COMMITMENT TO SOCIAL JUSTICE

The School of Education has a strong commitment to advancing social justice through all of its programs. Earning your degree in the School of Education will prepare you to address social inequalities through education and research.

APPLYING TO LOYOLA

- Complete your free application at LUC.edu/grad.
- Official transcripts of all undergraduate and any graduate work should accompany your application.

Application requirements vary by program. Learn more about admission requirements at LUC.edu/education/graduate.
