

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO SCHOOL OF LAW

With top-notch, accessible faculty who provide support and encouragement to students, Loyola University Chicago's legal education prepares you for a successful career as a practitioner, judge, legislator, administrator, business person, or other endeavors.

DEGREES FOR ATTORNEYS AND NON-ATTORNEYS

Choose from a degree or certificate in Corporate Compliance, Children's Law, Health Law, International Law, Trial Advocacy and many other areas. Current attorneys should pursue a Master of Laws (LLM) and non-attorney professionals should pursue a Master of Jurisprudence (MJ). The Juris Doctor (JD) can be completed as a full-time program or through our innovative Weekend JD program.

WHAT MAKES US STAND OUT?

We believe that the law is a force for positively changing society. Service to others is a theme that runs through all our efforts—inside and outside the classroom.

Our faculty members include practicing attorneys and business professionals who will give you real-world perspective on current issues facing the legal and many other fields.

FROM THE STUDENTS

"My professors are career professionals and experts in their respective areas. It's extremely valuable to hear about real world-experiences from professionals who've actually lived it."

— Charley Poynter, MJ student
