Greetings, Fellow Graduate Students!

On behalf of the Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Association and the Department of History, I would like to welcome you to the Sixth Annual Loyola University Chicago History Graduate Student Conference. The mission of Loyola's History Graduate Student Association is to represent the interests of the history graduate students to Loyola faculty, staff, and administration, as well as to cultivate academic excellence and community amongst graduate students.

Our sixth annual conference brings together history graduate students who are working on a variety of topics ranging from Early Modern politics to the Post-Cold War era. In addition to panels on Saturday, this year we are pleased and honored to welcome Dr. Stephen Kantrowitz of the University of Wisconsin-Madison who is delivering our keynote address on Friday evening. The conference provides graduate students to engage with the past, but also with each other.

Again, welcome to Loyola and thank you for your participation in our conference.

Sincerely,

*Susan Garneau, President
LUC History Graduate Student Association*
