Partners In Mission

New Hires & Seasoned Vets

Date: Tuesday, June 9, 2009
Time: 8:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M.
Place: Information Commons 4th floor (lunch will be provided)

On behalf of the Division of Mission and Ministry, Human Resources and Academic Affairs, we invite you to a specially designed Partners in Mission program for all new staff and faculty, as well as seasoned veterans who might not have had an opportunity to take part in this program before.

The purpose of this gathering is to give you a better understanding of our rich heritage and how your work and your presence at Loyola contribute to the mission.

Loyola relies on the gifts of all its members in order to carry out its educational mission, and this program will provide you an opportunity to reflect on how you contribute to the mission of Loyola, and how it, in turn, can enrich your life.

We encourage you to join us for this important gathering.

RSVP: Contact Joe Canino at jcanino@luc.edu by 6/3. Space is limited to the first 75 responses

Our Mission:

We are Chicago’s Jesuit Catholic University—a diverse community seeking God in all things and working to expand knowledge in the service of humanity through learning, justice and faith.

Office of Pre-Health Advising

Please welcome the Pre-Health Advising staff to the Sullivan Center!

Their new office is located in Sullivan 262

James M. Johnson  Director, Pre-Health Advising
Pam Deters  Office Manager
Theresa L. Ehrhart  Pre-Health Advisor
Kevin Kaufmann  Pre-Health Advisor

The Office of Pre-Health Advising offers assistance to Loyola's undergraduate and post-baccalaureate students interested in pursuing health professional careers. For those students unsure of exactly what field to choose or who want general information to begin their search, the Office of Pre-Health Advising is the place to start.

We are available during the academic year, M-F, 8:30a.m.-12p.m. & 1p.m.-5 p.m. We also have walk-in hours, M-F, 1p.m.-2 p.m.

Our office provides a variety of services for students to guide them through the seemingly confusing road of health professional careers and applications. The services provided include:

◆ Personal advising on health careers focusing on students’ individual interests
◆ An extensive resource library with materials focusing on different health professions. Our library provides the starting point in the search.
◆ A variety of workshops to serve the needs of our students.
◆ Information on various local volunteer opportunities
◆ A streamlined application process that gives students the opportunity to work more closely with the Pre-Health Office
◆ Updates from the Pre-Health Staff on health career events and activities
◆ Referrals to other university resources

Students can contact our office to obtain general information and admission requirements of the health professional schools.

Office of Student Financial Assistance

In preparation for the Discover Loyola orientation sessions, OSFA will again mail students a personalized Discover Loyola Financial Aid Update two weeks in advance of their orientation session. Students provide students with information on the specific steps they need to take this summer to complete the financial aid process.

Undergraduate Admissions

Mondays in June: Admission Reviews for Fall 2009 Applicants 9a.m.- 4p.m.

EMERGE:
Engaging Generations at Work

Thursday, June 4th  9a.m. - 4p.m.
Terry Student Center - Room 303
Baumhart Hall (WTC)

Be sure to register today for the EMERGE training course, Engaging Generations at Work for Managers.

This training session will review today's workforce through a generational lens and participants will address generational stereotypes, identify the key motivators for each generation, identify actions to engage and retain each generation, create an action plan to bridge the workplace generation gap, and practice the skills most needed to engage members of every generation. Visit LUC.edu/emerge to enroll today.

If you have any important updates or upcoming events within your department please e-mail: hub@luc.edu
