

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO SCHOOL OF LAW

Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies Overview of the On-Line LLM and MJ Programs in Global Competition Law

Welcome to [Loyola University Chicago School of Law](http://Loyola University Chicago School of Law)! For over 100 years, Loyola has offered excellence in legal education to students from across the country and around the world. We are pleased to introduce the world's first on-line LLM and MJ Programs in global competition law for lawyers and other working professionals in the competition and consumer law fields. This overview highlights some of the most prominent features of the Program and our Law School. We invite you to review more detailed information on our website at LUC.edu/antitrust/globalcompetition or to contact the Institute Director, Professor Spencer Weber Waller, directly at swalle1@luc.edu or 312.915.7137.

Loyola's on-line Global Competition Law Program features two tracks: The LLM (Master of Law) program is designed for students who have an underlying law degree and seek to deepen their knowledge in competition and/or consumer law, and the MJ (Master of Jurisprudence) is available for students who have their underlying degree in other fields but seek detailed instruction in competition and/or consumer law for professional or scholarly reasons. Loyola provides partial-tuition scholarships for exceptionally qualified students.

Both programs are designed to be completed in two years. All courses are completely asynchronous and can be completed during the semester at the times and places most convenient to the student. Each week students download the reading assignments, listen to lectures accompanied by outlines or slides, and then complete an evaluative exercise prior to moving on to the next module of the course. Each course will also involve weekly video or audio office hours with the faculty member and web-based interaction with the faculty and fellow students.

Students are required to take two courses each semester. During the first semester students in both programs take required courses in 1) Principles of Competition Law and 2) Intellectual Property. During the second semester students take required courses in 3) Law and Economics and 4) International and Comparative Competition Law. During the second year students must take four electives from a menu of electives including an optional LLM thesis.

Here are some of the reasons why enrolling in the On-line LLM and MJ Programs in Global Competition Law at Loyola University Chicago School of Law will be a rewarding and career-enhancing experience for you:

- Loyola's on-line faculty members include outstanding competition and consumer law scholars and practitioners who are leading experts from around the globe.
- Loyola offers a merit-based tuition-reduction scholarship program and specialized scholarships based on the level of economic development in the jurisdiction of the student.
- The Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies is a world leader in teaching, research, publication, and advocacy in the competition and consumer law fields. For more details on the Institute see LUC.edu/antitrust.
- Loyola is part of a rich Jesuit educational heritage that emphasizes academic excellence and creates a genuinely welcoming, diverse, and vibrant academic environment.
- Loyola's on-line LLM and MJ Programs are kept small to allow our faculty and staff to provide you with individualized instruction and services.

CONTACT: Professor Spencer Weber Waller, Professor and Director, Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies
swalle1@luc.edu – 312.915.7137

VISIT US: LUC.edu/antitrust/globalcompetition

MEET SOME MEMBERS OF LOYOLA'S GLOBAL COMPETITION LAW FACULTY:

Spencer Weber Waller, Professor of Law and Director,
Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies

Spencer Weber Waller is the Director of the Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies and Professor at Loyola University Chicago School of Law where he teaches antitrust, intellectual property, consumer, and international business law courses. He serves on the boards of the American Antitrust Institute, the Antitrust Law Journal and the World Competition Law and Economics Review. Professor Waller is the author of 6 books and over one hundred articles on United States and international antitrust, including the fourth edition of Antitrust and American Business Abroad. He is the recipient of the 2014 Concurrence Antitrust Writing Award.

Matthew Sag, Professor of Law and Associate Director,
Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies

Matthew Sag is a Professor of Law at Loyola University Chicago and Associate Director of the Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies. Professor Sag has also taught at DePaul University, the University of Virginia and Northwestern University. Prior to his academic career, Matthew Sag practiced as an intellectual property attorney in the United Kingdom with Arnold & Porter and in Silicon Valley, California with Skadden, Arps. Professor Sag earned his law degree with honors from the Australian National University and clerked for Justice Paul Finn of the Federal Court of Australia.

Ted Banks is a partner in the Chicago firm of Scharf Banks Marmor LLC. He has successfully managed antitrust and compliance challenges over the course of a 35-year career, including at Kraft Foods, where he was Chief Counsel - Global Compliance. He is author of Distribution Law: Antitrust Principles and Practice, and editor of the Corporate Legal Compliance Handbook, and serves as a compliance monitor for the Federal Trade Commission and Competition Bureau of Canada.

Andre Fiebig is a partner with Quarles & Brady LLP in Chicago and practices in the area of corporate and antitrust law with a particular emphasis on mergers and acquisitions, international joint ventures, and international antitrust and competition law. He previously practiced law in Germany and Belgium.

Dr. Michal Gal is Professor and Director of the Forum on Law and Markets at the Faculty of Law, Haifa University, Israel. She was a Visiting Professor at NYU, Georgetown, Melbourne and Lisbon. Prof. Gal is the author of numerous articles and books, including Competition Policy for Small Market Economies (Harvard University Press, 2003), a subject on which she is a world leading expert. Prof. Gal also has served as a consultant to international organizations including the OECD, ICN and UNCTAD.

Dr. James Langenfeld is a Managing Director and Head of Antitrust & Competition Practice at Navigant Economics. As a consultant, he provides economic analyses in the context of litigation, regulation, and economic policy that relate to competition and antitrust, intellectual property, class certification, damages, and government regulation. In over 25 years as a professional economist, he has done extensive work in many industries, including healthcare, pharmaceuticals and medical devices, insurance, petroleum, chemicals, motor vehicles, defense and aerospace, and tobacco.

Dr. Philip Marsden is a Deputy Chair of the Competition and Markets Authority of the United Kingdom and a board member of the Channel Islands Competition and Regulatory Authorities and the Legal Services Consumer Panel. He is also Visiting Professor at the College of Europe, Bruges, teaching the core LL.M. competition course and is co-founder and General Editor of the European Competition Journal.

VISIT US: LUC.edu/antitrust/globalcompetition

Apply Now: <https://gpem.luc.edu/apply>

CONTACT: Professor Spencer Weber Waller, Professor and Director, Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies
swalle1@luc.edu – 312.915.7137

VISIT US: LUC.edu/antitrust/globalcompetition