CONTENTS

Editor’s Note
Jessica Wolf and Ashley Huntington

ARTICLES

Medicare, Medicaid, and Medical Marijuana: Why Hospitals Should Not be High on Patient Certification
Ryan Marcus ................................................................. 1-15

Value-Based Insurance Design Viability in the Illinois Exchange
Joseph Willuweit ............................................................. 16-28

Long-Term Care in Illinois: Illinois’s Need for Community-Based Care in an Institutional-Focused System
Elise Robie ......................................................................... 29-42

Arkansas’s Section 1115 Waiver and Expansion of Medicaid: A Path Toward Equal Care
Morgan Carr .................................................................... 43-52

A Storied Past Demands Greater Access to Health Care Now and Into the Future
Sumaya Noush .................................................................. 53-70

The Affordable Care Act’s Negative Impact on Pre-existing Health Care Coverage for Small Businesses with Blue-Collar Workers
Amy Michelau .................................................................... 71-86

PPACA Abortion Restrictions and Illinois Policy
Holly McCurdy ................................................................. 87-101

The Risk Corridor Program: A Funding Issue
Christopher MacKenzie .................................................... 102-111
Narrow Networks: The Need for Enhanced Guidelines and Transparency
Heather Lang .................................................................................................................. 112-122

Repeal of the McCarran Ferguson Act: A Means to an End?
Markeya Fowler .............................................................................................................. 123-135

The Affordable Care Act Compared to International Health Care Systems: Can Changes in Pharmaceutical Industry Impact the Health Care System in the United States of America?
Shaleen Dada .................................................................................................................. 136-146