Professionalism Event - Lunch and Learn Series

Office of the Illinois State Appellate Defender

The Office of the State Appellate Defender ("OSAD") represents indigent defendants who are appealing their criminal convictions. Attorneys appear in the Illinois Appellate Court, the Illinois Supreme Court, and even the United States Supreme Court. Attorneys from the OSAD will be here to meet with you in the hopes of sharing information about their office and the many opportunities available to you as externs and as licensed attorneys.

Students who want to represent clients in need, and who desire to be in a position where they can change and shape the law should attend. If you want to know how you can do all of this while working with dedicated attorneys in a supportive environment, then please come learn more about working at OSAD. The OSAD encourages and welcomes applications from diverse candidates. All are welcome!
