Staff Attorney, Legal Resource Project

- Represented complex immigration cases before the DOJ and the Seventh
- Provided consultation and legal trainings in response to technical assistance requests from community-based organizations (CBO) in Illinois. These CBO partners operate through immigration representatives accredited by the DOJ, not lawyers. Responded to requests for complex legal analysis on eligibility for benefits, development of legal service delivery models, and policy advocacy on endemic issues (e.g., developed and co-led a DACA collaborative to address implementation with the Obama Administration). Responded promptly and creatively to dynamic, on-the-ground needs of the CBO community.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE
