

Faculty Assessment

Name: _____

A. Teaching

1. Please list the courses that you taught during the period, including the credit hours for each course, and the number of students taught.
2. Please describe any new courses that you taught during the period and any courses in which you prepared new teaching materials or substantial supplemental materials.
3. Please describe the formative and summative assessment methods that you used.
4. Please describe the ways in which you have developed a secure, supportive, and respectful learning environment for all of your students.
5. Please describe the ways in which you have strengthened your cultural competency and your ability to engage students in respectful discussions across difference.
6. Please describe any electronic technology or any online instruction that was used in your courses.
7. Please describe courses in which you incorporated professional skills training into the class during the period, including collaborative exercises and simulations.
8. Please describe your other teaching duties (e.g., supervised independent research for students, critiques of student papers for law journals, or other teaching activity that involved a significant investment of your time).
9. Please describe the ways in which you helped your colleagues with their teaching or collaborated with your colleagues to improve student learning
10. Please offer a Self-Assessment of your teaching, on a scale of 0 to 4.

B. Scholarship

1. Please provide the full citation of work that you published.

2. Please provide the working title (or brief description) of your work in progress, projected completion date, and nature of commitment from any law review or publisher.
3. Describe any other scholarly activities that you pursued.
4. Please describe the ways in which you helped your colleagues with their scholarship or collaborated with your colleagues to produce scholarship.
5. Please offer a Self-Assessment of your scholarship, on a scale of 0 to 4.

C. Service

1. Please describe your professional service.
2. Please describe your University and law school service.
3. Please describe your community service activities.
4. Please offer a Self-Assessment of your service, on a scale of 0 to 4.

D. Objectives and Support for the Upcoming Academic Year

Please describe your professional goals in the coming year and how the law school's administration and your faculty colleagues can help to support those goals in the upcoming academic year and beyond.