

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Children's Legal Rights Journal is seeking submissions on the Indian Child Welfare Act.

The Children's Legal Rights Journal (CLRJ) is a national scholarly journal sponsored by Loyola University Chicago School of Law with the National Association of Counsel for Children. We publish articles covering a variety of children's legal rights issues and are the only journal in the country that exclusively addresses the legal needs of children.

What We Are Looking For:

We invite you to submit articles addressing the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA). The current CLRJ Executive Board is seeking to counterbalance a 2016 CLRJ article by Timothy Sandefur that strongly opposed ICWA. We are looking for submissions that analyze the beneficial aspects of ICWA for Native American children, families, and their tribes. Submissions can directly address any or all of the arguments in the Sandefur article (available via this link) or any other topic related to ICWA.

Submission Details

- ◆ Submissions should be previously unpublished, original pieces.
- ◆ All articles should be between 15-60 pages double spaced and contain footnote citations that conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation.
- ◆ Submissions from current law students will not be accepted.
- ◆ Submissions will be accepted and reviewed on a rolling basis for Volume 41 issues.
