

CONTENTS

Introduction

The 2004 International Law Review Symposium on the Free Trade Area of the Americas: Implications of a Hemispheric Marketplace Introductory Remarks by Thomas M. Haney	119
---	-----

Featured Articles

The FTAA Negotiations: A Melodrama in Five Acts Keynote Address by Kevin C. Kennedy	121
Expected Impact of FTAA on Latin American Countries Robert Grosse and Roy C. Nelson	139
Free Trade Does Not Equal Freedom From Red Tape: Practitioner Thoughts on FTAA Rules of Origin Lynn S. Preece & Bart M. McMillan	159
Alternatives to the FTAA: Lessons from Europe Sarah Anderson	167
The Free Trade Area of the Americas: An Idea Whose Time Has Come – And Gone? David A. Gantz	179

Student Articles

Protecting the Indigenous Past While Securing the Digital Future: The FTAA and the Protection of Expressions of Folklore Anthony Cartee	203
Reconciling the FTAA and TRIPs: Can a Free Trade Area of the Americas be a Fair Trade Area of the Americas? Implications of a Hemispheric Intellectual Property Agenda Anwar Imam	217
The Circle of Labor: the NAALC, ILO, FTAA and Labor Dispute Resolution Mechanisms Laura L. Milnichuk	235