

CONTENTS

Remarks

- Loyola University Chicago International Law Symposium Keynote Address
When You Get to the Fork in the Road, Take It: Reflections on Fifteen Years of Developments in Modern International Criminal Law
David M. Crane 1

Feature Articles

- The International Criminal Court and the Closure of the Time-Limited
International and Hybrid Criminal Tribunals
Valerie Oosterveld 13
- Prosecuting Charles Taylor's Son for Torture: A Step Toward the Domestication of International Law
Thomas J. G. Scott 33
- The International Criminal Court: Will It Succeed or Fail? Determinative
Factors and Case Study on This Question
Thomas Thompson-Flores 57
- The International Criminal Court: An Informal Overview
Jerry E. Norton 83

Student Article

- A New Forum for the Prosecution of Terrorists: Exploring the Possibility of the Addition of Terrorism to the Rome Statute's Jurisdiction
Angela Hare 95