

Loyola University Chicago Law Journal

(USPS 303-950)

VOLUME 41

SPRING 2010

NUMBER 3

CONTENTS

SYMPOSIUM ARTICLES

Designing Better Institutions to Enforce Competition Law: A Symposium Introduction Spencer Weber Waller	411
When the Going Gets Tight: Institutional Solutions when Antitrust Enforcement Resources are Scarce Michal S. Gal	417
Stranger in a Strange Land: An Outsider's View of Antitrust and the Courts Neil Komesar	443
Designing Competition Law Institutions: Values, Structure, and Mandate Michael J. Trebilcock & Edward M. Iacobucci	455
Antitrust and Institutions: Design and Change Eleanor M. Fox	473
A Model of Antitrust Regulatory Strategy Allan Fels	489
Reforming the Enforcement of the Japanese Antimonopoly Law Mitsuo Matsushita	521
The Institutional Design of Canadian Competition Law: The Evolving Role of the Commissioner Calvin S. Goldman, Q.C. & Navin Joneja	535

Designing Antitrust Agencies for More Effective
Outcomes: What Antitrust Can Learn from Restaurant Guides
..... D. Daniel Sokol 573

ARTICLES

The (Un)Constitutionality of Section 632 of the Edge Act: An Analysis Under Article III and Theories of Protective Jurisdiction
..... Elizabeth R. Sheyn 587

The Private Antitrust Remedy: Lessons from the American Experience
..... Edward D. Cavanagh 629