Departmental and Individual Memberships

Departmental memberships entitle any or all members of a department who are not participating in the convention as presenters or section organizers/chairs to attend the annual convention. The annual CV workshop, held at the convention, is available to graduate students within MMLA member departments, who may sign up for appointments for one-on-one review of their CVs for revision purposes. Departmental membership forms may be found at: <http://www.luc.edu/mmla/forms.html>

Individuals within an MMLA member department MUST pay individual membership and conference registration fees for any given academic year in which they are presenting a paper, organizing/chairing a session, or otherwise listed in the program as active participants in the MMLA convention.

Total Fees

Membership + Registration = Total
