CAS/SES/SOC Language Competency Exam This exam tests basic competency in reading, writing and speaking. For students satisfying the basic language requirement, it tests competency at the level typically attained by completing a 102 language course. CAS Intermediate-Level Language Competency Exam	This is one option for students who need to fulfill the College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), School of Environmental Sustainability (SES), or School of Communication (SOC) foreign language graduation requirement. The competency exam is coordinated by CAS, SES, and SOC. Not all students must take this exam. To meet the foreign language requirement, one of the following is necessary: -Score a 4 or higher on a high school Advanced Placement foreign language test, or score a 4 or higher on a high school Advanced Placement foreign language literature test. -Take one foreign language course at the 102 level or higher and complete it with a C- or above. -Pass the CAS/SES/SOC language competency exam. For CAS students who need to fulfill a higher-level requirement (103 or 104 equivalency), they must contact LanguageTesting@luc.edu for availability of intermediate-level exams.	CAS, SES, and SOC students: For Chinese (Mandarin), French, German, Italian, Japanese, Latin, or Spanish, contact: Language Learning Resource Center: Crown Center 208, 1001 W. Loyola Ave., Chicago, IL 60626 · 773.508.2873, pdzieza@luc.edu
School of Education oral proficiency exam	School of Education students seeking certification in teaching French, Italian or Spanish.	Please visit http://www.luc.edu/education/resources/illinois-licensure/testing-requirements for instructions on how to register for this exam.
Research Tool Requirement	As per the Graduate School website, Academic Policies section: http://www.luc.edu/gradschool/academics_policies.shtml#mozTocId150217 “Several [graduate] programs have established a ‘research tool’ requirement (e.g., knowledge of a foreign language, proficiency in statistics) to ensure that students are adequately prepared to conduct research in their field.”	Students in Graduate School programs should contact their Graduate Program Director. Students in the Spanish M.A. program should contact Dr. Ana Rodriguez Navas, Graduate Program Director, 773-508-7364, arodrigueznavas@luc.edu
