

MOSTRA
IV BRAZILIAN
FILM SERIES
IN CHICAGO
NOV 1-13

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY
CHICAGO
NOV 5

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY CHICAGO
Sullivam Center, Galvin Auditorium
6339 N. Sheridan, Chicago, IL
Producer Rodrigo Letier in attendance
*Paid parking on campus

(TUE) NOV 5TH

WALACHAI (WALACHAI)

Director: Rejane Zilles | 84 min | Doc | 2009 | ENGLISH SUBTITLES
FREE ADMISSION

Synopsis: Walachai in old-German means 'a far away place, lost in the time'. Inhabitants from this rural community in South Brazil communicate with an old Germany dialect; however, they know little about their German roots.

3:00 PM • Screening of short Ilha das Flores (Island of Flowers) - Director: Jorge Furtado
3:15 PM • Screening of Walachai (Walachai)

SERRA PELADA - A LENDA DA MONTANHA DE OURO
(THE LEGEND OF THE MOUNTAIN OF GOLD)

Director: Victor Lopes | 102 min | Documentary | 2013 | ENGLISH SUBTITLES
FREE ADMISSION

Synopsis: In the 1980s, 115,000 men, from all over Brazil, would extract 100 tons of gold from Serra Pelada, the largest open-air gold prospection site in the world, transforming it into a giant, water-filled crater surrounded by misery. Through interviews, this documentary raises questions about the mountain's rise and fall, and its relation to the political transformations of the country.

5:00 PM • Screening of Serra Pelada (The Legend of the Mountain of Gold)
6:40 PM • Q&A with producer Rodrigo Letier

Sponsored by the Dep. of Modern Languages and Literatures, Loyola University

SPONSORED BY

GOLD

OFFICIAL HOTEL

PUBLIC CHICAGO

SILVER

KERN IMPORTERS
Unique International Wines

SUSMAN & ASSOCIATES, p.c.
INTERNATIONAL & IMMIGRATION LAW

BRONZE

MEDIA PARTNERS

RAMALHO FILMES

Please note that screening dates and times are subject to change. For up to date information check our website. Scan the code on your device or go to: www.brazilianfilmsinchicago.com