GO GLOBAL
study abroad

“Go forth and set the world on fire”
-Ignatius of Loyola-

Office of International Programs
Study Abroad at Loyola

- Programs in over 70 countries
- Financial aid & scholarship opportunities
- Programs available for every budget
- Students from every major are able to study abroad and courses abroad count as Loyola credit
Who is Eligible to Study Abroad?

- Loyola University Chicago students

- Have completed 24 credit hours at Loyola before the start of the program (12 credit hours for transfer students) for most programs

- 2.5 cumulative GPA (2.75 for Global Center and exchange Programs)

- Be in good academic, disciplinary, and financial standing with the University
How long are study abroad programs?

- Full Year
- Semester
- J-Term
  - Late December (after Christmas) – mid-January (before second semester)
- Spring Break
- Summer
  - 3-12 weeks, depending on the program
Where can LUC students study abroad?

- Africa
- Asia
- Australia
- Europe
- Latin America
- Middle East
- New Zealand
- Oceania
What Type of Programs are Offered?

Global Centers
- Vietnam & Rome
- Campus amenities similar to U.S.
- Loyola courses in English alongside Loyola & visiting students

Loyola Short-Term Programs
- Loyola students travel on classes taught by Loyola faculty
- Short-term (J-term, spring break, summer)
- Focus on specific, Loyola course

Providers & Exchanges
- Studying at a foreign university or center
- Courses alongside U.S., local, or international students
- Classes in English or local language
Intimate program with a very affordable cost of living and program cost

Courses in a wide range of subjects and taught by leading Vietnamese scholars

ALL Financial Aid applies (Federal, State and Loyola)

4 excursions included:
• Cambodia
• Mekong Delta
• Cu Chi Tunnels
• Northern and Central Vietnam
Loyola University Chicago campus

Year, Semester and Summer options

Wide variety of courses

Same tuition as Loyola University Chicago and ALL Financial Aid applies (Federal, State and Loyola)

Scholarship Available: On average over $100,000 awarded a year.
Where do students live?

How do classes work?

Housing
- Homestays
- Residence Halls
- Apartments

Academics Abroad
- ALL classes abroad can count for Loyola credit
- Students can stay on track for graduation
Costs and Financial Aid

- State and Federal financial aid can be used on all semester and year long programs
- Loyola financial aid and scholarships apply to some programs, see our website for more details luc.edu/studyabroad

Scholarships

- Program specific and national scholarships are available
- In the 2017-18 school year, Loyola students received $257,460 in study abroad scholarships
How do we manage the Health and Safety for Students Study Abroad?

ALL students are required to attend a Pre-Departure Orientation

On-site Health and Safety Orientation

CISI Study Abroad Insurance

OIP monitors world events in addition to all of our program providers
When Should Students Start Planning for Study Abroad?

Plan ahead: most students find sophomore or junior year maximizes options!

Fall study abroad fair is Thursday, September 19th

Come meet with a study abroad advisor