The Loyola University Chicago
Philosophy Department announces the

JOHN F. GRANT, MD AWARDS
FOR
UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS
STUDYING HEALTH CARE ETHICS

Two awards of $3000 each will be given for Spring semester 2019

Eligibility: Junior or Senior Undergraduate students who have a demonstrated interest in studying health care ethics.

Conditions: The recipients of the awards are expected to enroll for Spring 2019 in ONE of the following classes:
- Philosophy 398:001 (The Grant Symposium in Health Care Ethics)
- BIET 396A (The Bioethics Minor Capstone)
- Philosophy 369 (Philosophy of Medicine)
- Philosophy 355 (Neuroethics)

For application forms, please go to the Philosophy Department or Bioethics Minor websites, or contact the secretarial office in the Philosophy Department, 366 Crown Center, Lake Shore Campus. Telephone 773-508-2291. Contact person: Lucas Abramson (Administrative Assistant), email labramson@luc.edu.

To apply: As described in the application form, applications should be emailed to Lucas Abramson (labramson@luc.edu) and include the following materials:
- Application form
- 2-3 letters of recommendation (minimum of 2, preferably 3)
- A letter of application explaining your personal interest in health care ethics
- A writing sample in bioethics.

Deadline for Applications: Friday, November 16, 2018

These awards are supported by the John F. Grant, MD Endowment for Health Care Ethics.