

SARA PROHENK, PERFORMANCE ARTIST @ FACEBOOK.COM/SABARPROHENK SOCIAL JUSTICE GUEST ACTIVIST AND FIRE DANCER

light the world on fire

Women's Studies & Gender Studies and Polish Studies
co-sponsored by History and International Studies

present

Patient Revolution:

The Hidden History of Women's Leadership in Poland's Solidarity Movement

2:30 pm
Tues. Feb. 22
Piper Hall

970 West Sheridan Rd.
open to the public

lecture by
Shana Penn

Author of:

Awarded Best Book
in Slavic, East European and Eurasian
Women's Studies
by the Association of Women in Slavic Studies

She is currently writing a book about Poland's Jewish cultural revival, and an oral history
collection of Czech
women dissidents
in the 1989 Velvet Revolution.

Shana Penn is a visiting scholar at the Center for Jewish Studies, at the Graduate Theological Union, in Berkeley. She also is the executive director of the San Francisco-based Taube Foundation for Jewish Life and Culture, where she created the Foundation's Jewish Heritage Initiative in Poland.

Solis enosi

this image is a feminist artistic response, by Slovenian artist Sonya Ivekovi, to the High Noon election poster used by Solidarity in the 1989
election campaign.