

LOYOLA SEMESTER IN WASHINGTON, DC

LIVE, STUDY, AND INTERN IN OUR NATION'S CAPITAL!

Loyola's new "Semester in Washington, DC Program" enables students to

- Gain valuable professional experience and earn course credit while serving four days a week as a student intern in a host office in Washington, DC.
- Enroll as a full-time student in classes taught by Loyola faculty.
- Experience life for an entire semester in the unique setting that is our nation's capital: Washington, DC.

Eligibility: Open to undergraduate students with at least junior standing in all of Loyola University Chicago's undergraduate programs.

Program Operation: Fall semesters, beginning with the fall 2016 semester.

Internship Placements: Numerous internship opportunities await the motivated student, ranging from placements in government (e.g., congressional and federal) offices and non-profit organizations and think tanks, to more internationally oriented placements, such as with international organizations.

Curriculum: Students maintain full-time status (enrollment in 12 credit hours or more). Students receive 6 credit hours for the internship practicum (4 day-a-week, on-site work commitment, Monday-Thursday, 8:30 am-5:00 pm), 3 credit hours for the internship seminar (Friday, 9:00-11:30 am), and up to two additional courses (total of 6 credit hours) taught during the evening (7:00-9:30 pm, either Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday).

Cost: Regular LUC semester tuition + $1,000 program fee + $4,540 (approximate) housing fee (students will be housed and take Loyola classes at the Washington Intern Student Housing).
